Preface

THE preparation of a new edition of the Bible Songs was given by the Board of Publication to a committee in February 1899. Nothing was done until the fall of that year, but since then, as there was opportunity amid busy occupations, the work has been prosecuted steadily. The book of praise now offered to the Church is the result of painstaking toil, no effort having been spared to make it worthy of its sacred purpose. While projected on the same lines as the edition of 1890, it is larger and has several improvements.

In the course of the three hundred and twenty-eight selections each Psalm in regular order is completed, though here and there its parts are chosen from different meters. By printing the entire Psalm the book is adapted to the whole range of congregational worship, should such use be desired. The multiplication of sections may be questioned, but it has a decided gain. The fault of announcing only opening stanzas is very general, and the partitioning of Psalms lifts into notice passages of peculiar interest which otherwise would be unsung. In the division of Psalms their structure has been kept in mind, so as not to mar the succession of thought. Exceptions to this rule are found in the long historical Psalms, and arise from the mechanical necessities of paging. Additional to one full setting of the Psalms there are extra numbers, and these include a few groupings of separated but related stanzas within a Psalm. The Psalms that are prized most highly have special treatment, there being two or more insertions of each under effective music. Choruses sufficient to meet reasonable demand are employed, and care has been taken to see that they suit the sentiment of the section to which they are joined. Ordinarily their wording is the authorized metrical text, but some are drawn from the prose versions.

The selection of music engaged studious attention. The tests of what was adopted were fitness to express the spiritual utterances of the Psalter, genuinely musical quality, promise of lasting value, and popular adaptation. Melodies of animated movement and simple harmony prevail. With them are combined tunes of more scholarly character, having those finer effects sought by the advancing culture of our day. Among the latter are English and German chorals, and others constructed on their model. One hundred and twelve of the best and most durable pieces in the old Bible Songs are carried over, so that there is enough of familiar music to make the book immediately available for all. The provision of new music is liberal, and insures ample variety and freshness. No less than two hundred and forty-five tunes are introduced for the first time. Of these there are one hundred and twenty-nine which have been written especially for this edition by composers of experience and note, and which add largely to its resources. The remainder of the new music has been gleaned from standard publications of recent date. For permission to use copyrighted music gratuitously acknowledgments are due, and are hereby made, to J. W. Bischoff, the David C. Cook Publishing Company, the Oliver Ditson Company, W. H. Doane, W. Irving Hartshorn, J. B. Herbert, John J. Hood, H. H. McGranahan, A. B. Morton, L. W. Munhall, H. R. Palmer, Theo. E. Perkins, W. O. Perkins, Geo. C. Stebbins, Laura A. Tate, W. T. Wiley, Robt. H. Wilson, and others.

An important feature of the book is a system of headings which embody commonly the leading strain or subject of the Psalm. It is believed that they will contribute meaning to the service of song. The names of tunes and the copyright captions which they displace appear below the music. A topical index, analyzing the rich content of the Psalms and supplying a ready reference for both doctrinal and practical themes, is appended.

With this brief preface the book is sent forth upon its mission. It presents anew the immortal songs of the Holy Spirit, those grand hymns of the Psalter which have been sung in far-off countries and centuries long ago, which were chanted by our Lord and His Apostles, and which with their measured language of Christian feeling and devotion will abide until the end. The prayer of those who have wrought upon it is that it may prove a blessing wherever used, making the worship of God attractive and delightful, and ministering to the sanctification of old and young.

As originally constituted the committee included the late Rev. W. J. Robinson, D.D., LL.D., of Allegheny, but by his early death it was deprived of the valuable aid which he would have rendered. His name has grateful mention for what he accomplished in the past on behalf of the Church's psalmody.

PSALM 4. L. M. Arr. by HENRY BURTON

1. God of my righteous-ness, re - ply. . In mer - cy to my ear - nest cry;
2. How long, ye sons of men, de - fame, And turn my glo - ry in - to shame?
3. Yet know that ev - er for His own The Lord doth choose the god - ly one;

In past dis tress Thou didst re - lieve, Be gra - cious now, my pray'r re - ceive.
In van - i - ties which ye de - vise, How long de-light, and fol - low lies?
And when to Him my pray'rs as - cend, The Lord will gra-cious-ly at - tend.
When on your bed re-clined at rest, And still the ris - ings of your breast.

CHORUS

O who will show us a - ny good? Ex - claims the rest - less mul - ti - tude;

But lift on us, O God of grace, The cheer - ing brightness of Thy face.

("Evening Hymn")

5 In sacrifice of righteousness
Your homage to the Lord express;
And ever let your heart rely
With confidence on God Most High.

6 More joy from Thee has filled my heart
Than all their corn and wine impart.
I lay me down to peaceful sleep,
For Thou wilt me in safety keep.

7 Pleadings Of Prayer

PSALM 5. 7s — Arr. by C. MARION COUCH

1. O Je - ho - vah, hear my words, And my med - i - ta - tion weigh;
2. In the morn - ing, Lord, my voice Thou shalt hear in sup - pliant cries;
3. Thou, Je - ho - vah, art a God Who in sin can - not de - light;
4. E - vil - do - ers Thou dost hate, Li - ars all de-stroyed shall be;

Hear my cry, my King, my God, For to Thee, O Lord, I'll pray.
In the morn - ing, Lord, to Thee I will lift my wait - ing eyes.
E - vil shall not dwell with Thee, Nor shall fools stand in Thy sight.
Men of blood and of de - ceit Ev - er are ab - horred by Thee.

5 But in Thy abundant grace
To Thy house will I draw near;
To Thy holy temple, Lord,
I will look, and bow in fear.

6 Lead me in Thy righteousness;
Evermore my steps maintain;
And because of watchful foes,
Make Thy way before me plain.

7 In their mouth there is no truth,
All their heart is full of wrong,
Like an open grave their throat;
And they flatter with their tongue.

8 Let transgressors be destroyed,
In their sins by Thee expelled;
By their counsels let them fall,
For against Thee they rebelled.

9 But let all in Thee who trust,
Ever glad and joyful be;
Let them joy who love Thy name,
Safely guarded, Lord, by Thee.

10 For Jehovah to the just
Will abundant blessings yield,
And with favour compass him
Safely round as with a shield.

8 Prayer For Guidance

PSALM 5. 7s. 1-3, 5, 6 — J. W. BISCHOFF

1. O Je - ho - vah, hear my words, And my med - i - ta - tion weigh;
2. In the morn - ing, Lord, my voice Thou shalt hear in sup - pliant cries;
3. Thou, Je - ho - vah, art a God Who in sin can - not de - light;
4. But in Thy a - bun - dant grace To Thy house will I draw near;

Hear my cry, my King, my God, For to Thee, O Lord, I'll pray.
In the morn - ing, Lord, to Thee I will lift my wait - ing eyes.
E - vil shall not dwell with Thee, Nor shall fools stand in Thy sight.
To Thy ho - ly tem - ple, Lord, I will look, and bow in fear.

11 The Slandered Saint's Refuge

PSALM 7. S. M.

AARON WILLIAMS

1. O Lord, my God, in Thee Do I my trust re - pose;
2. Lest they my soul should tear, And like a li - on rend,
3. Lord, if Thy search - ing eye This crime in me hath seen;
4. If e - vil I re - paid To one with me at peace,

O do Thou save and res - cue me From all my cru - el foes.
When no de - liv - er - er is near To res - cue and de - fend.
If on my hand the guilt do lie Of this most griev - ous sin:
(Yea, I my cause - less foe did aid, And free - ly did re - lease;)

("St. Thomas")

5 Then let the foe in strife
Pursue me as his prey,
Tread down upon the earth my life,
In dust my honor lay.

6 In wrath lift up Thy hand;
My foes are filled with rage;
Awake, and as Thou didst command,
On my behalf engage.

7 So saints with one accord
Around Thee shall draw nigh;
And therefore for their sakes, O Lord,
Do Thou return on high.

8 Thou, Lord, shalt judge all flesh;
In judgment take my part,
According to my righteousness,
And purity of heart.

9 Let sin no longer be,
Whilst God the just sustains,
For God is righteous, and doth see,
And try the heart and reins.

10 God saves the pure in heart;
He shields me in my way;
In judgment takes the just man's part,
Hates sinners every day.

God's Glory In His Works

PSALM 8. 7s

WILLIAM F. SHERWIN

1. Lord, our Lord, o'er earth's vast frame, How ex-alt - ed is Thy name! Who hast set Thy glo - ry bright Far a - bove the heav - en's height. How great Thy name!
2. From the mouth of children young, From the infant's lisping tongue, Matchless strength Thou hast or-dained, Thus Thy venge - ful foes re-strained. How great Thy name!
3. When Thy heav-ens I sur - vey, Which Thy fin-gers' work dis-play, When the moon and stars I see Or - der'd all by Thy de - cree: How great Thy name!
4. What is man that in Thy mind He a con-stant place should find? What the son of man that he Should be vis - it - ed by Thee? How great Thy name!

REFRAIN

Lord, our Lord, in all the earth, How great Thy name! Who hast set Thy glo - ry bright Far a - bove the heav - en's height, How great Thy name!

("Evening Praise")

5 Thou his station didst ordain
Just below the angel train;
Glory Thou hast o'er him shed,
And with honor crowned his head.

6 Thou hast given him command
O'er the creatures of Thy hand;
And beneath his feet hast laid
All the works which Thou hast made;

7 Flocks and cattle, every tribe,
Beasts that in the field abide,
Birds that through the heavens roam,
Fish that make the sea their home;

8 Every living thing that strays
Through the ocean's secret ways.
Lord, our Lord, o'er earth's vast frame,
How exalted is Thy name!

Music on Opposite Page, No. 11

11 If they do not repent,
His sword He sharpened hath,
His bow is ready made, and bent
To execute His wrath.

12 To smite with deadly blows,
His weapons He hath framed;
Against all persecuting foes
His arrows He hath aimed.

13 The foe hath labored long
In vain and wicked things;
In heart he mischief plans and wrong,
And falsehood forth he brings.

14 A secret pit he made,
Where others might be snared;
He prostrate in that pit is laid
Which his own hands prepared.

15 The mischiefs he designed
Shall on his head come down;
His violence reward shall find,
Returned on his own crown.

16 For all His righteousness,
The Lord I'll magnify;
His name will I forever bless,
The name of God Most High.

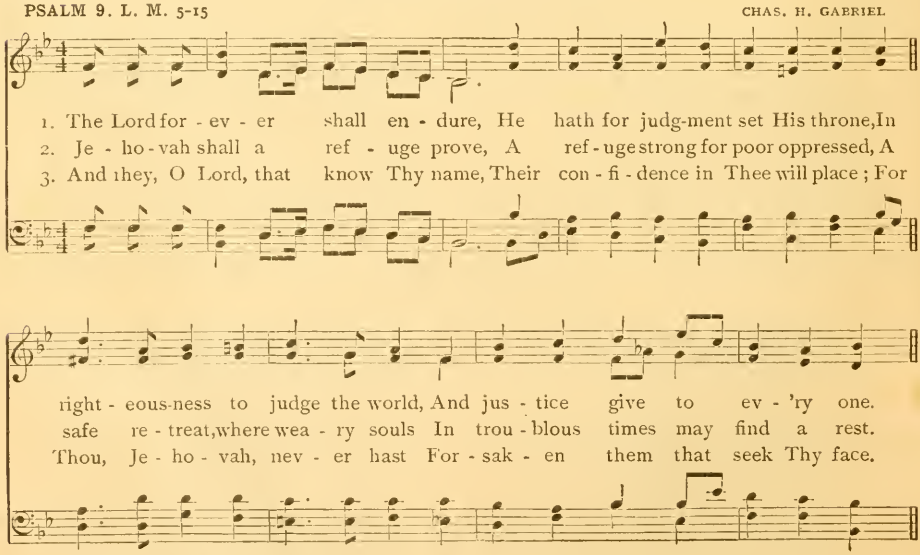
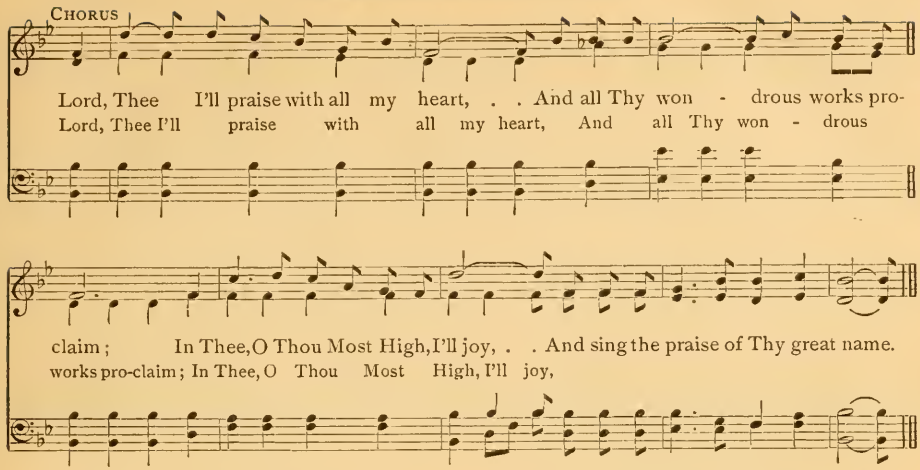
PSALM 9. L. M. 5-15 CHAS. H. GABRIEL



Copyright 1901 by United Presbyterian Board of Publication



4 Sing praises to the Lord Most High,
To Him that doth in Zion dwell;
Declare His mighty deeds abroad,
His deeds among all people tell.

5 When He inquiry makes for blood,
He calls to mind the murderer's deed;
Nor will forget the humble saints,
Who cry to Him in time of need.

6 O Lord, have mercy, and regard
The grief which I from foes sustain;
O Thou, Who from the gates of death
Dost raise me up to life again;

7 That I, in Zion's daughters' gates,
May sing Thy praise with cheerful voice:
In that salvation Thou dost bring,
Redeemed from death I will rejoice.

8 The heathen in that pit are sunk
Which they had wickedly prepared;
Their net was cunningly concealed,
And in it are their own feet snared.

9 The Lord is by the judgment known
Which He in righteousness has wrought;
The hands of sinners make the snares,
The snares with which themselves are caught.

10 The wicked turned to hell shall be,
And nations that forget the Lord:
The needy shall not be forgot,
Nor poor men lose their hoped reward.

11 Arise, and let not man prevail;
O Lord, judge heathen in Thy sight;
That they may know themselves but men,
The nations of the world affright.

15 The Cry Of The Oppressed

PSALM 10. S. M. 1-11 C. WARWICK JORDAN

1. O where - fore dost Thou stand From us, O Lord, so far? . .
2. The wick - ed in his pride Doth per - se - cute the poor; .
3. He of his soul's de - sire Doth talk with boast - ing great; .

And why dost Thou con - ceal Thy - self, When times so trou - blous are?
The e - vil things which they de - vised, The same let them en - dure.
He bless - es him that's cov - et - ous, Whom yet the Lord doth hate.

("Rhoads")

4 The wicked seeks not God,
Restrained through pride of face;
In all his thoughts the thought of God
Hath in his heart no place.

5 His ways still grievous are,
And far above his sight
Thy judgments are; at all his foes
He puffs with scornful spite.

6 He in his heart hath said,
"I never moved shall be,
And I from all adversity
Forever shall be free."

7 With cursing, fraud, deceit,
His mouth is ever filled;
Whilst vanity and mischief lie
Beneath his tongue concealed.

8 In villages he lurks,
And slays the innocent;
His eyes are set against the poor,
On secret mischief bent.

9 Concealed he lies in wait,
Like lion in his lair;
He takes the poor and needy one
Entangled in his snare.

10 Himself he humbleth low,
He croucheth down withal,
That so a multitude of poor
May by his strong ones fall.

11 He says within his heart,
"The Lord hath quite forgot;
He turns away His countenance,
His eye beholds it not."

3 Break Thou the wicked's arm,
Subdue the evil one;
And search out all his wickedness
Until Thou findest none.

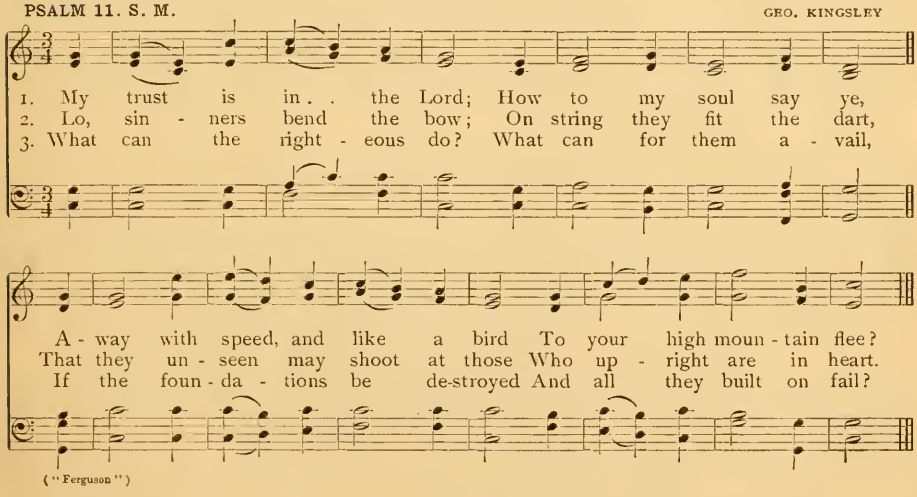
4 Jehovah ever reigns,
And firm His throne shall stand.
The heathen nations are destroyed
Forever from His land.

5 Of those that humble are,
Thou, Lord, hast heard the prayer;
Thou also wilt prepare their heart,
And still incline Thine ear;

6 To judge the fatherless,
And those by men distressed,
That they by man that is of earth
May be no more oppressed.

17 Faith's Anchor

PSALM 11. S. M. GEO. KINGSLEY



("Ferguson")

4 The Lord in Zion dwells,
The Lord's throne is on high:
His eyes behold the sons of men;
Yea, them His eyelids try.

5 The Lord the righteous tries;
But those that wicked be,
And him who loveth violence
In soul abhorreth He.

6 Fire, brimstone, snares, fierce storms,
On sinners He shall rain;
This is the portion of their cup,
The cup which they shall drain.

7 Because the righteous Lord
Delights in righteousness:
And with His gracious countenance
The upright He will bless.

21 Our Fallen Race And Its Ransom

PSALM 14. L. M. GEORGE KINGSLEY

1. The God Who sits en - throned on high The fool doth in his heart de - ny;
2. From heav'n with searching eye the Lord Did all the sons of men re - gard;
3. From righteous ways they all de - part; All are cor - rupt and vile in heart;
4. Has knowledge from the wick - ed fled, That they My peo - ple eat as bread?

Cor - rupt are they, vile works have done, And do - ing good there is not one.
To see if a - ny un - der - stood, If a - ny one were seek - ing God.
A - mong them do - ing good is none, A - mong them all not e - ven one.
That they de - light in works of shame, And call not on Je - ho - vah's name?

("Kingsley")

5 There fearful terror on them fell,
For God doth with the righteous dwell;
The poor man's counsel you despise,
Because in God his refuge lies.

6 May Israel's help from Zion come;
When God shall bring His captives home,
Then Jacob greatly shall rejoice,
And Israel shout with gladsome voice.

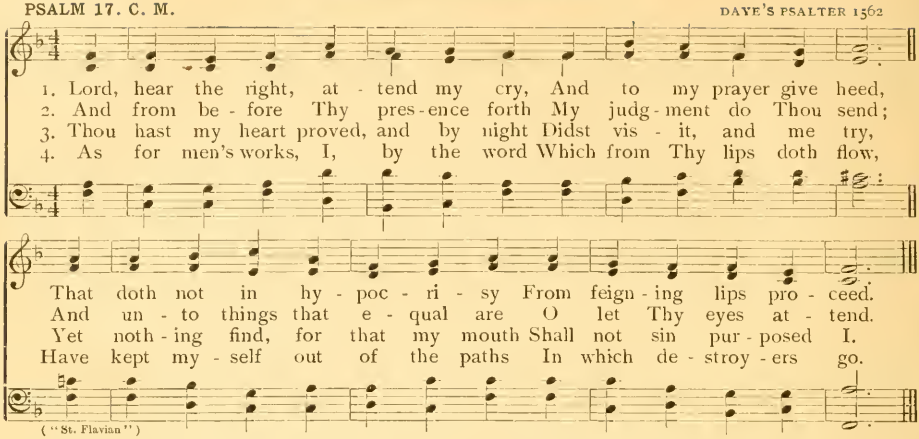
27 Our Refuge In The Lord

PSALM 17. C. M. DAVE'S PSALTER 1562



5 Hold up my goings, Lord, me guide
In paths that are divine,
That so my footsteps may not slide
Out of those ways of Thine.

6 Upon Thee I have called, O God,
Because Thou wilt me hear:
That Thou mayst hearken to my speech,
To me incline Thy ear.

7 Thy wondrous loving kindness show,
Thou, Who by Thy right hand
Dost save all those who trust in Thee
From such as them withstand.

8 As th' apple of the eye me keep;
In Thy wings' shade me hide
From wicked men and deadly foes
Who rage on every side.

9 In their own fat they are enclosed;
Their mouth speaks loftily;
Our steps they compassed, and to earth
They, bowing, set their eye;

10 Even like a lion fierce and strong,
And greedy of his prey,
Or lion young, which lurking doth
In secret places stay.

11 Arise, and disappoint my foe,
And cast him down, O Lord;
Save Thou my soul from wicked men,
From men who are Thy sword.

12 From men who are Thy hand, O Lord,
From worldly men me save,
Who only in this present life
Their part and portion have.

13 They with Thy hidden wealth are filled,
And many children have;
The rest of their abundant wealth
They to their children leave.

14 But as for me, I Thy own face
In righteousness shall see;
And with Thy likeness when I wake
I satisfied shall be.

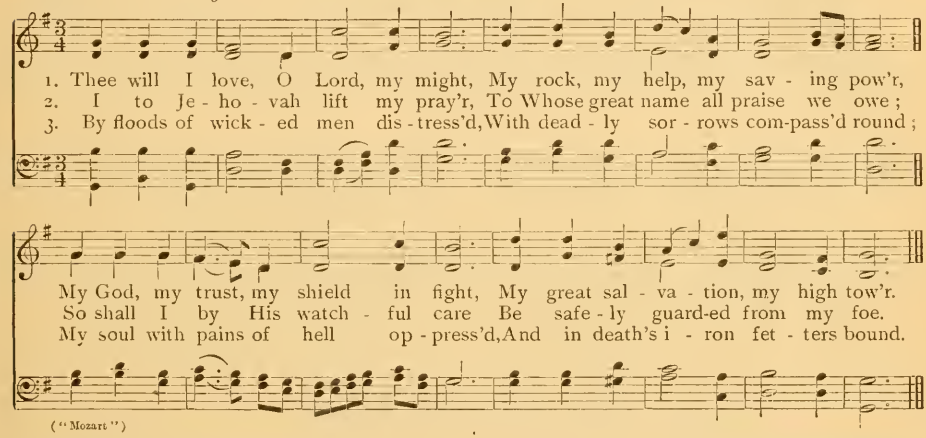
29 God's Might Our Protection

PSALM 18. L. M. 1-13 — Arr. from MOZART



4 Distressed, I called upon the Lord,
And to my God addressed my prayer;
My voice He from His temple heard,
My cry ascended to His ear.

5 When God in His fierce anger came,
The everlasting hills did quake;
The trembling earth throughout its frame
Did from its deep foundations shake.

6 Dark clouds of smoke, dread signs of ire
Up from Jehovah's nostrils came;
His mouth sent forth devouring fire,
And coals were kindled into flame.

7 He bowed the heavens, His high abode,
Descending 'mid the gloom of night;
He on a cherub swiftly rode,
And on the wings of wind His flight.

8 Dark watery mists in thick array
And lowering clouds His presence vail,
But at His brightness pass away,
And burst in storms of fire and hail.

9 Then through the heaven with lightning riven
Jehovah thundered in His ire;
The voice of God Most High was given
'Mid storms of hail and coals of fire.

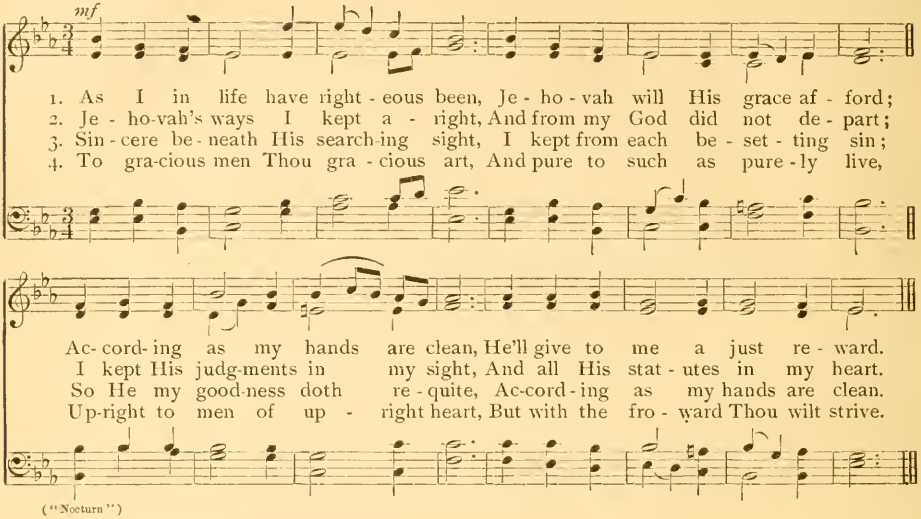
10 His deadly shafts around He threw,
His foes dispersed in wild retreat;
Like burning darts His lightnings flew,
Consuming them in sore defeat.

11 The waters' channels were disclosed,
Laid bare the world's foundations vast;
By Thy rebuke, O Lord, exposed,
And by Thy nostrils' angry blast.

12 He sent from heaven and rescued me
From many waters swelling high;
From those that hate me set me free,
And foes that stronger were than I.

13 With fierce assault in sorrow's day,
My foes came on, but God was near;
He saved me, and enlarged my way,
Because to Him my soul was dear.

PSALM 18. L. M. 14-21 F. H. BURSTALL



("Nocturn")

5 For Thou the troubled soul wilt save,
High looks wilt humble in Thy might;
A lamp to me Jehovah gave,
And turned my darkness into light.

6 I on His mighty arm relied,
And over troops of foes prevailed;
And with my God upon my side,
Their lofty walls I fearless scaled.

7 The way of God perfection shows,
Jehovah's holy word is tried;
He is a buckler unto those
Who in His mighty power confide.

8 For who as God should be adored?
Who but our God can us befriend?
Who is a rock besides the Lord?
Who else is able to defend?

5 The lives of all my deadly foes
To be destroyed to me were given;
They called, but none to save them rose;
In vain they cried for help to heaven.

6 Then small as rising dust which flies
Before the wind, I did them beat;
I cast them forth like dirt which lies
Down-trodden in the miry street.

7 From strife Thou hast secured my throne;
O'er heathen made me head to be;
A people which I have not known
Shall render service unto me.

8 They shall obey soon as they hear;
The sons of strangers shall submit;
Yea, strangers' sons shall fade with fear,
Who in their strong enclosures sit.

9 Jehovah lives, let Him be praised,
My rock, on Whom alone I rest;
And highly let God's name be raised,
Who me with His salvation blessed.

10 The mighty God avenges me,
Hath nations under me subdued,
From all my foes hath set me free,
And saved from all that me withstood.

11 From men of violence and blood
Thou didst to me deliv'rance bring;
So thanks to Thee I'll give, O God,
Thy praise among the nations sing.

12 He to His king deliv'rance sends,
To His anointed shows His grace;
His mercy evermore extends
To David and his promised race.

I all My bones in number know;
They look and stare to mock My woe.

6 My clothes among them they divide,
And on My robe by lot decide.
But be not far from Me, O Lord,
Haste, O My strength, and help afford.

My loving one from dogs set free;
From lion's mouth Thy help I crave,
From unicorns Thou didst Me save.

Faith's Supplication (Con.)

Griefs of heart are ver - y great, Me from all distress re-lieve; Look on my af-flict-ed state,
Let my soul be kept by Thee; Res-cue me from all my foes; From confu-sion keep me free,

CHORUS

All my tres - pass - es for-give. Truth and right shall me de - fend, For on
I in Thee my trust re-pose.

Truth and right shall me de - fend,

Thee I ev - er wait; Ransom, Lord, to Is - rael send, Him redeem from ev - 'ry strait.
For on Thee I ev - er wait;

4 My hands I'll cleanse, O God,
So to Thy altar go;
With voice of thanks proclaim abroad,
And all Thy wonder show.

5 I in Thy house delight,
Where is Thy honor seen:
My soul, my life, do not unite
With wicked, bloody men.

6 Their hands with crimes they fill,
Their right hands bribes retain;
But I in all my way shall still Integrity maintain.

7 Redeem me from distress,
Thy grace to me afford.
I stand upon an even place;
With saints I'll bless the Lord.

61 God's Praise In The Storm

PSALM 29. 12S & 11S

H. R. PALMER

1. Ye sons of the mighty, give ye to Je-ho-vah, O give to Him hon-or and strength ev-er-more;
2. The voice of Je-ho-vah comes o-ver the wa-ters; His voice o'er the vast and deep o-cean is heard:
3. The voice of Je-ho-vah is break-ing the ce-dars, The ce-dars which Leb-a-non's sum-mit a-dorn;

O give to the name of Je-ho-vah due glo-ry, In beau-ty of ho-li-ness bow and a-dore.
The God of all glo-ry is speak-ing in thun-der; How mighty, how aw-ful the voice of the Lord!

A King Whose dominion is never to cease.
Jehovah with power will strengthen His people,
Jehovah will bless all His people with peace.

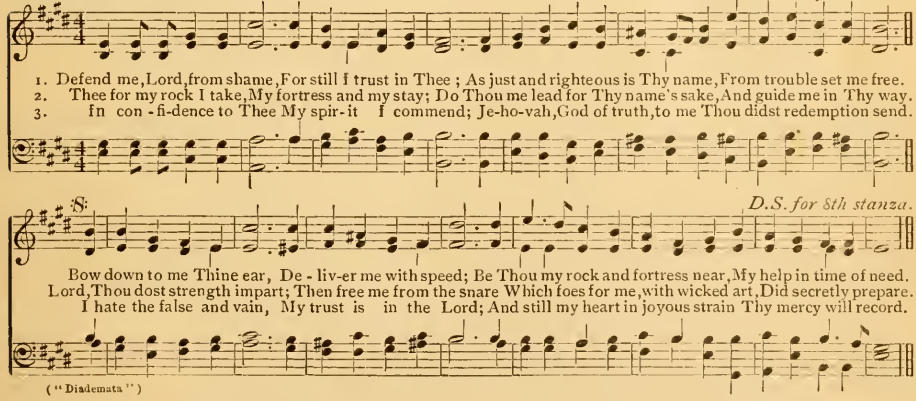
64 The Resort Of The Godly In Trouble

PSALM 31. S. M. GEORGE J. ELVEY



4 Lord, Thou hast seen my woes,
My soul in trouble known,
Nor shut me in the hand of foes,
But freedom to me shown.
In mercy send relief,
For troubles now prevail;
My eye is dim, consumed with grief,
My flesh and spirit fail.

5 My life in grief is past,
My weary years in groans,
For sin my strength is failing fast,
Decayed are all my bones.
Reproached by every foe,
And more, by neighbors near;
Through fear, my friends no friendship show,
They flee when I appear.

6 Forgotten like the dead,
And spurned as broken ware,
I hear the frequent slander spread;
On every side is fear.
They join in dark accord,
They plot my blood to shed:
I trusted have on Thee, O Lord,
"Thou art my God," I said.

7 My times are wholly Thine,
From cruel foes me take:
Thy face make on Thy servant shine,
Save for Thy mercy's sake.
From shame, O Lord, defend,
For I to Thee have cried;
Let foes be shamed, to death descend,
And, silent, there abide.

8 Do Thou their tongues restrain,
Who false reports do seek,
And grievous things with proud disdain
Against the righteous speak.

65 The Riches Of God's Goodness

PSALM 31. C. P. M. DR. L. MASON

3 O let Jehovah blessed be,
Who showed His wondrous love to me
In city fortified;
"Cut off from Thee," I said in fear,
Yet Thou my suppliant voice didst hear,
When unto Thee I cried.

4 O love the Lord all that Him serve,
For He the faithful shall preserve,
And all the proud reward.
Be of good courage; He with strength
Will fill your steadfast hearts at length,
All ye who trust the Lord.

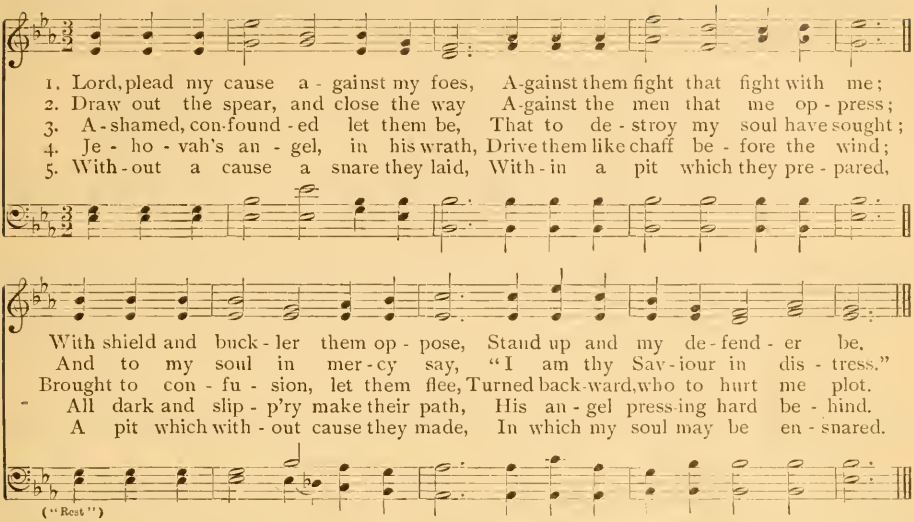
PSALM 35. L. M. W. B. BRADBURY



6 Let him with sudden ruin meet,
And let him struggle in the snare
Which he had spread for other feet;
Yea, let him meet destruction there!

7 Then shall my soul in God rejoice,
In His salvation joyful be,
And all my frame shall lift its voice,
And say, "Lord, who is like to Thee?"

8 Who is like Thee, Who dost defend
The needy poor against the strong;
Who to the poor dost help extend,
To save from him that would him wrong?

9 False witnesses against me stood;
Of things I knew not, charges made.
They me rewarded ill for good;
To rob my soul they ill repaid.

10 But I in mourning garb was clad,
When they in sickness suffered pain;
I made my soul with fasting sad,
My prayer to me returned again.

11 As one for friend's or brother's woes,
So I for them went sadly on;
As one for mother mourning goes,
So I with grief went bowing down.

12 But they rejoiced in my distress;
To mock, the abjects gathered were;
Unknown to me, around did press,
With ceaseless slanders did me tear.

13 With hypocrites at feasts that mock,
They with their teeth have gnashed on me.
How long, Jehovah, wilt Thou look?
How long wilt Thou their raging see?

14 My soul from their destructions guard;
My darling from the lions bring;
Then in the great assembly, Lord,
Among the people, praise I'll sing.

15 Let not my causeless foes, elate
With joy, o'er me triumphant cry;
Nor they who me unjustly hate,
With secret scorning wink the eye.

16 They speak not peace, but falsehoods they
Against the quiet ones devise,
Make wide their mouths at me, and say,
"Aha! we've seen it with our eyes."

17 This Thou hast seen, Thy silence break:
Lord, be from me not far away.
Stir up Thyself, my God awake
To judgment, nor my cause delay.

18 Judge me in righteousness, O God;
Let them not triumph over me,
Nor from their hearts proclaim abroad
"Aha! our soul's desire we see."

19 Let them who glory in my fall
Not say, "We have him swallowed quite;"
Dishonor, shame, confound them all
Who rise against me in their might.

20 But let them shout, let them rejoice,
Who long to see me justified;
Yea, let them say, with ceaseless voice,
"The Lord, the Lord be magnified."

21 The Lord Who loves His servant's peace
To him prosperity doth give.
My joyful tongue shall never cease
To praise Thy justice while I live.

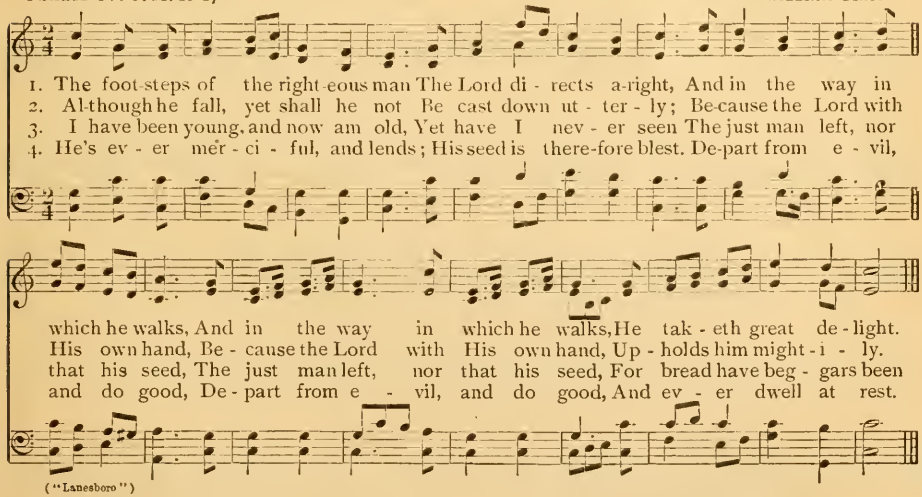
9 Because they whom the Lord doth bless
The earth as heirs shall own;
But all accursed of Him shall be
Cut off and overthrown.

78 Benedictions Upon A Godly Life

PSALM 37. C. M. 20-27 WILLIAM DIXON



5 For God loves judgment, and His saints
Leaves not in any case;
‖: They are kept ever; but cut off :‖
Shall be the sinner's race.

6 The just inherit shall the land,
And ever in it dwell;
‖: The just man's mouth doth wisdom speak, :‖
His tongue doth judgment tell.

7 The law of God is in his heart,
His steps slide not away.
‖: The wicked watcheth for the just, :‖
And seeketh him to slay.

8 Yet him the Lord will not forsake,
Nor leave him in his hands;
‖: The righteous will He not condemn, :‖
When he in judgment stands.

Reward According To Character

PSALM 37. C. M. 28-33

L. A. TATE

1. Wait on the Lord, and keep His way, And thee ex - alt shall He . . .
2. I saw the wick - ed great in power, Spread like a green bay - tree; . .
3. Mark thou the per - fect, and be - hold The man of up - right ways; .
4. But God up - on trans-gress - ors shall A com - mon ru - in send, . .

To hold the land by her - it - age, And sin - ners' ru - in see. . . .
He passed, lo, he was gone; I sought, But found he could not be. . . .
Be - cause the man of ho - ly life In peace shall end his days. . .
And when the wick - ed are cut off, In woe their days shall end. . .

CHORUS

De - light thy - self in God, De - light thy - self in God, He'll give thy heart's de - sire to thee; Thy way to God com-mit, Thy way to God com - mit, Him trust, It bring to pass shall He.

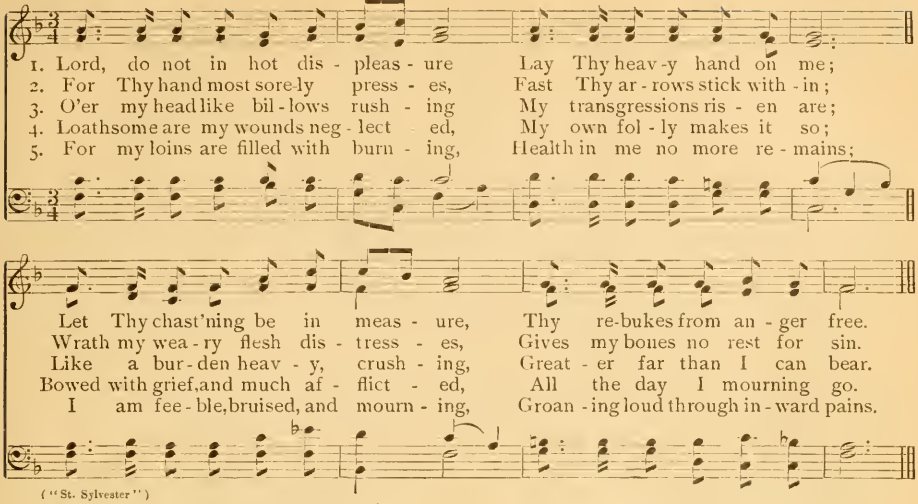
5 But the salvation of the just
Is from the Lord above;
He in the time of their distress
Their stay and strength doth prove.

6 The Lord shall help and rescue them;
He shall them free and save
From wicked men, because in Him
Their confidence they have.

80 A Penitent's Grief And Supplication

PSALM 38. 8s & 7s. 1-9 — JOHN B. DYKES



6 My desires and ceaseless wailing,
Lord, unveiled before Thee lie;
Pants my heart, my strength is failing,
All its light hath left mine eye.

7 Friends and lovers now are standing
At a distance from my sore;
Kinsmen once my cause befriending
Come to visit me no more.

8 They that for my life are seeking
Snares for me in secret lay,
Hurtful things against me speaking,
Plots devising all the day.

9 But as one that's deaf I heard not,
As one dumb no word I spake,
Silent like those that regard not,
Those whose mouths no answer make.

82 Musings Upon The Frailty Of Life

PSALM 39. S. M. J. E. SWEETSER

1. I said, I'll walk with care, From sin my tongue com - mand;
2. As dumb, I si - lent stood, From words I did re - frain;
3. My heart was all on fire, With burn - ing thoughts sup - pressed;
4. My end and length of days To me, O Lord, un - veil,

My mouth a wise re - straint shall bear, While sin - ners near me stand.
I held my peace from speak - ing good, My soul was filled with pain.
Then, with my tongue, my soul's de - sire I thus to God ad - dressed.
That I may know, in all my ways, How weak I am and frail.

("Greenwood")

5 Lord, Thou hast made my years
To measure but a span;
As nought to Thee my age appears;
How vain, at best, is man!

6 Man lives in empty show,
His anxious care is vain,
He hoards his wealth, and doth not know
Who shall possess his gain.

7 Now, Lord, why do I wait?
My hope is in Thy name;
Blot out my sins in mercy great,
Nor let the fool me shame.

8 As dumb, I silent stand,
Because this work is Thine;
Remove from me Thy chastening hand,
Beneath Thy stroke I pine.

9 Rebukes for sin consume
And chasten man with pain;
Like moths they waste his beauty's bloom;
Lo, every man is vain.

10 Jehovah, hear my prayers,
And answer my request;
Turn not in silence from my tears,
But give the mourner rest.

11 I am a stranger here,
Dependent on Thy grace;
A pilgrim, as my fathers were,
With no abiding place.

12 Spare, Lord, and strength bestow,
My fainting soul restore,
Ere I to dust and darkness go,
And be on earth no more.

83 A Mourner's Entreaties

PSALM 39. S. M. 4, 5, 11, 12 E. R. KROEGER

1. My end and length of days To me, O Lord, un - veil,
2. Lord, Thou hast made my years To meas - ure but a span;
3. I am a stran - ger here, De - pen - dent on Thy grace;
4. Spare, Lord, and strength be - stow, My faint - ing soul re - store,

That I may know, in all my ways, How weak I am and frail.
As nought to Thee my age ap - pears; How vain, at best, is man!

It written is of me;

5 To do Thy will I take delight,
O Thou my God that art;
Yea, that most holy law of Thine

Within the congregation great
I righteousness did preach;
Lo, Thou dost know, O Lord, that I
Have not refrained my speech.

86 God's Tender Mercies Besought

PSALM 40. L. H. M. 7-11 — JAMES McGRANAHAN

1. I for Thy ten - der mer - cies cried, O Lord, let them not be de - nied;
2. En - com-passed round with ills un - told, On me my sins have tak - en hold;
3. All those who seek my soul to kill To - geth - er let con - fu - sion fill;
4. Let all who seek to see Thy face Be glad and joy - ful in Thy grace;
5. I'm poor and need - y, yet the Lord With kind-est tho'ts will me re - gard;

To me Thy lov - ing - kind - ness show, Thy truth be still my stay;
They're more than hairs up - on my head, And shame my face hath veiled.
Those who de - sire my hurt, O Lord, Drive back - ward in their way;
Let those who Thy sal - va - tion love Con - tin - ual - ly pro - claim,
Thy help - ing grace Thou wilt im - part, And keep me in the way;

Let them pre - serve me where I go, And keep me ev - 'ry day.
Lord, save me, haste to give me aid, My ver - y heart hath failed.
Make des - o - late as their re - ward, To me "A - ha" that say.

G. A. ROSSINI
Arr. by GEO. KINGSLEY

1. Blest he who wise - ly helps the poor; In trou - ble he shall help se - cure:
2. Thou wilt not give him to the will Of foes that seek to do him ill;
3. On him Thou wilt com - pas - sion take, And all his bed in sick - ness make.
4. My foes speak ill of me, they say, When shall he die, his name de - cay?

The Lord shall keep him, he shall live, And bless - ing on the earth re - ceive.
When laid up - on the bed of pain, The Lord with strength will him sus - tain.
I said, Lord, pit - y, heal Thou me, Be - cause I have of - fend - ed Thee.
If see - ing me, his speech is vain, His heart hoards ills to tell a - gain.

("Warner")

5 All those who hate me whisper lies,
Against me hurtful things devise;
Now his disease, say they, is sore,
It binds him fast, he'll rise no more.

6 Yea, ev'n my own familiar friend,
The man on whom I did depend,
Who ate my bread, pretending zeal
Against me lifted up his heel.

7 In mercy raise me up, O Lord,
To render foes a due reward.
By this I know Thy love remains,
Because my foe no triumph gains.

8 Thou dost my steps direct aright,
And set me ever in Thy sight.
Let Israel's God, Jehovah, then
Be ever blest. Amen, Amen.

4 My God, although dejected now,
I think of Thee to check my fear,
From Jordan's land, from Hermon's brow,
And Mizar-hill, for Thou art near.

5 Deep calls to deep in thunders loud,
Thy water-spouts repeat the call,
Whilst o'er me roll the billows proud,
And all Thy waves upon me fall.

6 Yet shall the Lord command by day
His loving kindness, and His song
By night be with me; and I'll pray
To Him Who doth my life prolong.

7 I cry to God, my rock and stay,
O, why hast Thou forgotten me?
Why go I mourning all the day
Oppressed by my fierce enemy?

8 Keen as a sword within my bones
Are the reproaches which I hear;
Whilst every day, in scornful tones,
"Where is thy God?" the scoffers sneer.

9 O, why art thou cast down, my soul?
And what should so disquiet thee?
Still hope in God, and Him extol,
Whose face brings saving help to me.

And under Thy dominion Thou
The people down shalt bring.

4 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
Forever shall remain;
The sceptre of Thy Kingdom doth
All righteousness maintain.
Thou lovest right, but ill
Dost hate, for on Thy head
Above Thy fellows God, Thy God,
The oil of joy hath shed.

5 Of myrrh and spices sweet
A smell Thy garments had,
From palaces of ivory,
Whereby they made Thee glad.
And in Thy glorious train
King's daughters waiting stand,
And Thy fair queen in Ophir gold
Doth stand at Thy right hand.

5 Soul-redemption precious is,
And the hope must ever cease
That forever live shall he,
And corruption never see.

6 For he sees that wise men die,
Brutish fools in death must lie;
Then their riches' hoarded heap
Other hands in turn shall keep.

7 Secret hopes engage their heart
That their house shall ne'er depart,
That their lordly dwelling-place
Shall remain from race to race.

8 To their lands they give their name,
In the hope of lasting fame;
But man's pomp shall not abide;
He shall die as beasts have died.

9 Folly thus marks out their way,
Yet their seed laud what they say:
In the grave like sheep they're laid,
Death shall there upon them feed.

10 Fear not when one's wealth is great,
When his house gains high estate;
Death shall all his glory end,
Naught shall after him descend.

11 Though in life his soul he blessed
As of all he wished, possessed,
(And the world thy praise will tell,
When to self thou hast done well);

12 With his fathers he shall lie,
Where no light shall meet his eye.
Man in honor when not wise
Like the beast both lives and dies.

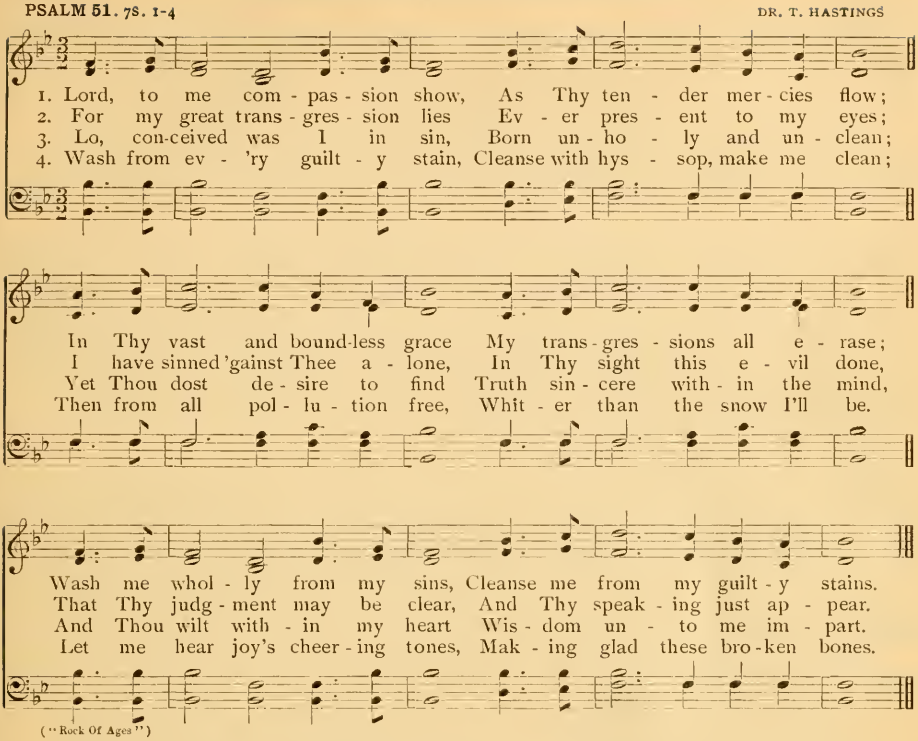
The Penitent's Prayer And Confession

PSALM 51. 7s. 1-4

DR. T. HASTINGS



("Rock Of Ages")

Music on Opposite Page, No. 105

4 The fowls on mountains high
  Are all to Me well known;
Wild beasts which in the fields do lie,
  Even they are all My own.

5 Then, if I hungry were,
  I would not tell it thee;
Because the world with fulness stored
  Belongs alone to Me.

6 Will I eat flesh of bulls?
  Or goats' blood drink will I?
Thanksgiving offer thou, and pay
  Thy vows to God Most High.

7 And call upon Me when
  In trouble thou shalt be;
I will deliver thee, and thou
  My name shalt glorify.

8 But to the wicked man
  God saith, My laws and truth
Shouldst thou declare? Why dost thou take
  My cov'nant in thy mouth;

9 Since good instruction thou
  Perversely hated hast,
And since My words behind thy back
  Thou with contempt dost cast?

10 Thou gavest thy consent
  When thou a thief hast seen,
And with the vile adulterers
  Partaker thou hast been.

11 Thy mouth to ill is given,
  Thy tongue deceit doth frame;
Thou sit'st thy brother to revile,
  Thy mother's son to shame.

12 Because I silence kept,
  While thou these things hast wrought.
That I was wholly like thyself
  Has been thy impious thought.

13 Yet I will thee reprove
  For this thy evil way,
And all thy wicked deeds I will
  Before thy face array.

14 Now ye that God forget,
  Consider this with care,
Lest I, when there is none to save,
  Do you in pieces tear.

15 He honors Me who brings
  The sacrifice of praise;
I'll God's salvation show to him
  Who orders right his ways.

107 Penitential Prayers And Vows

PSALM 51. 7s. 5-9 GEO. C. STEBBINS

1. From my sins hide Thou Thy face, Blot them out in Thy rich grace;
2. Give sal - va - tion's joy a - gain, Let Thy Spir - it me sus - tain;
3. Freed from guilt, my tongue shall raise Songs Thy right- eous -ness to praise;

Free my heart, O God, from sin, Spir - it right re-new with - in; Cast me not a-way from Thee,
Then shall sinners, taught by me, Learn Thy ways and turn to Thee; Free me from the guilt of blood,
O - pen Thou my lips, O Lord, Then my mouth shall praise accord; Sacrifice Thou wilt not take,

Nor Thy Spirit take from me; Cast me not a-way from Thee, Nor Thy Spirit take from me.
God, of my sal - va-tion God; Free me from the guilt of blood, God, of my sal- va-tion God.
Else would I the off'ring make; Sacrifice Thou wilt not take, Else would I the off'ring make.

4 Sacrifice or burnt-off'ring
Can to Thee no pleasure bring;
But a spirit crushed for sin,
Contrite, broken heart within,
Thine accepted sacrifice,
Thou, O God, wilt not despise.

5 Zion favor in Thy grace,
Yea, Jerus'lem's ramparts raise;
Then shall sacrifices right,
Whole burnt-off'rings, Thee delight;
So shall men, their vows to pay,
Victims on Thine altar lay.

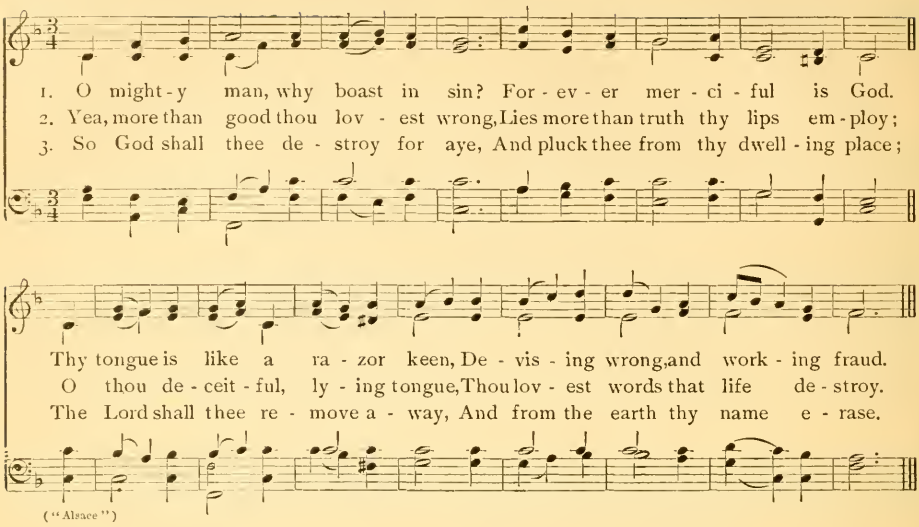
110 The Evil=Doer Warned

PSALM 52. L. M. Arr. from BEETHOVEN



4 The godly see his ruined state,
And, fearing, they shall laugh and say,
Behold the man of boasting great,
Who would not make the Lord his stay;

5 But placed his confidence in gold,
And wealth increased to ample store;
In wickedness he grew more bold,
In sin increased yet more and more.

6 But I within God's holy place
Am like a fruitful olive tree;
My trust on God's abundant grace
Shall ever and forever be.

7 Thy praise I ever will proclaim,
Because, O Lord, Thou hast done this;
And I will wait upon Thy name,
For good before Thy saints it is.

5 Lo, wandering far my rest should be
In some lone desert waste;
I from the windy storm would flee,
And from the tempest haste.

6 Destroyed, Jehovah, let them be;
Divide, confuse their tongue;
For in the city, lo, I see
Great strife and grievous wrong.

7 All day and night they go around
Upon her circling walls,
While sin and sorrow great are found
Within her peopled halls.

8 Yea, crimes of violence and fraud
Within the city meet;
Deceit and guile there stalk abroad,
Nor leave the crowded street.

9 'Twas not a foe who did deride,
For that I could endure;
No hater who thus rose in pride,
Else I would hide secure.

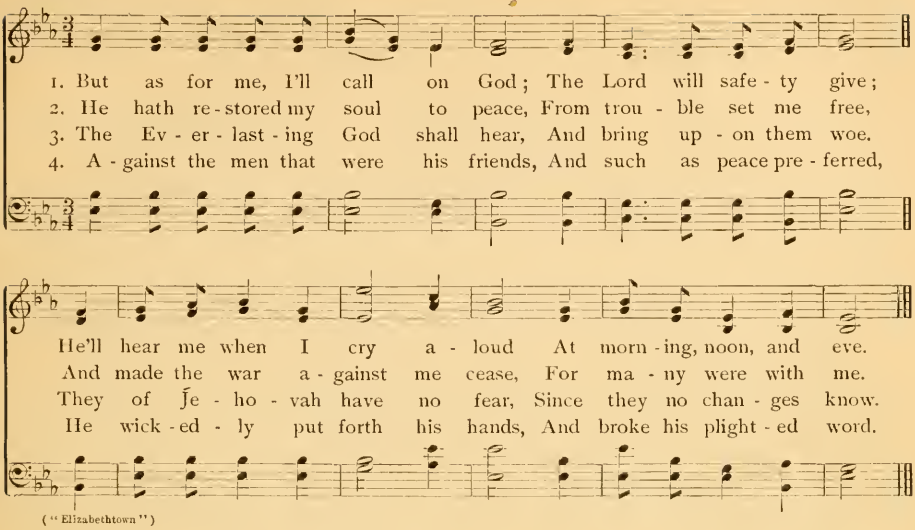
10 But thou it was, my friend and guide;
We did as equals meet;
We walked to God's house side by side,
And blended counsel sweet.

11 Death shall them seize, and to the tomb
Alive they shall go down,
For wickedness is in their home,
Among them sins abound.

Triumphant Confidence

PSALM 55. C. M. 12-19

GEO. KINGSLEY



5 His lips more smooth than butter were,
But in his heart was war;
More soft than oil his words appear,
But like drawn swords they are.

6 Upon the Lord thy burden cast,
And He shall thee sustain;
For He will make the just stand fast,
Unmoved shall they remain.

7 But, Lord, Thou wilt in judgment sit,
And bring them down to woe;
And in the deep and darksome pit
Of ruin lay them low.

8 The men of wicked, bloody ways,
And all that liars be,
Shall not live out one-half their days;
But I will trust in Thee.

4 And as a serpent's poison too
Their poison doth appear;
Yea, they are like the adder deaf,
Which closely stops her ear;

5 That so she may not hear the voice
Of one that charm her would,
No, not though he most cunning were,
And charm most wisely could.

6 Their teeth, O God, within their mouth
Break Thou in pieces small;
The great teeth break Thou out, O Lord,
Of these young lions all.

7 Let them like waters melt away,
Which downward ever flow;
His arrows all in pieces cut
When he shall bend his bow.

8 And like a snail that melts away,
Let each of them be gone,
That as a birth untimely they
May never see the sun.

9 He shall them take away before
Your pots the thorns can heat,
Both living, and in dreadful wrath
As with a whirlwind great.

10 The righteous, when he vengeance sees,
Shall be most joyful then;
The righteous one shall wash his feet
In blood of wicked men.

11 So men shall say, the righteous man
Reward shall never miss,
And verily upon the earth
A God to judge there is.

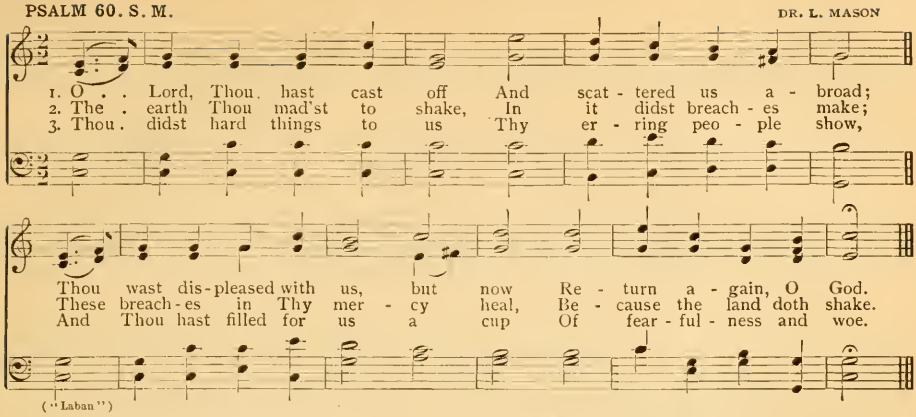
PSALM 60. S. M. DR. L. MASON



4 A banner Thou hast given
To them Thy name who fear,
That it displayed because of truth
Before them might appear.

5 That Thy beloved land
From trouble may be free,
Deliver Thou with Thy right hand,
And hear my earnest plea.

6 In holiness God spake,
In this rejoice I will;
The land of Shechem I'll divide,
And measure Succoth's vale.

7 To me Manasseh's land
And Gilead belong;
Judah gives laws for me, my head
Shall Ephraim make strong.

8 In Moab I will wash,
My shoe o'er Edom throw;
Thou, Palestine, because of me
Shalt forth in triumph go.

9 Unto the city strong
O who will be my guide?
And who will lead me to the land
Where Edom's bands reside?

10 O God, wilt Thou not guide,
Thou Who didst stand afar,
Refusing with our host to go
When marching forth to war?

11 From trouble give us help,
For vain is human aid;
Through God we shall do valiant deeds,
He on our foes shall tread.

5 Thou therefore, Lord, the God of Hosts,
The God of Israel,
Awake to visit heathen all,
Nor spare those who rebel.

6 They at the evening time return,
They make a howling sound,
Even like a dog, and often walk
About the city round.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth,
And in their lips are swords;
For thus with confidence they say,
Who now doth hear our words?

8 But Thou, O Lord, wilt laugh at them,
And all the heathen mock;
While he's in power I'll wait on Thee,
For God is my high rock.

9 The God of all my mercies will
With speed give help to me;
He my desire upon my foes
Will cause my eyes to see.

10 O Lord our shield, destroy them not,
My people would forget;
But scatter Thou, and humble them
Beneath Thy power great.

11 For their mouth's sin, and for the words
Which from their lips do fly,
Let them be taken in their pride,
Because they curse and lie.

12 In wrath consume them, them consume,
That so they may not be;
And that in Jacob God doth rule
To earth's ends let them see.

13 Let them at evening time return,
And make a howling sound,
Even like a dog, and often walk
About the city round.

14 And let them wander up and down
In seeking food to eat,
And let them grudge, when they shall not
Be satisfied with meat.

15 But of Thy power I'll sing, at morn
Aloud Thy mercy praise,
For Thou a tower and refuge wast
To me in troublous days.

16 O God, Thou art my strength, and I
Will praises sing to Thee;
For God is my defence, a God
Of mercy unto me.

5 In ill encourage they themselves,
In secret, snares they lay;
They conference together have;
Who shall them see, they say.

6 They have sought out iniquities,
A perfect search they keep;
Of each of them the inward thought,
And very heart is deep.

7 God shall an arrow shoot at them,
And wound them suddenly:
Their own false tongues shall them confound;
All seeing them shall flee.

8 All men shall fear, and that this is
God's work they shall declare;
They shall observe and understand
What these His doings are.

9 The righteous shall on God rely,
In Him shall they delight;
In Him shall glory every one
Who is in heart upright.

129 God's Bounty In Harvest Blessings

PSALM 65. C. P. M. 5-8 E. R. KROEGER

1. The tribes of earth's re-mot-est lands Be-hold the to-kens of Thy hands, And fear the earth throughout.
2. Thy time-ly vis-its bless the earth, To drenching rains Thy clouds give birth, Enriching all the land.
3. Thou wilt its ridged and furrowed plain Make soft and smooth with show'rs of rain, Its springing Thou wilt bless.
4. The lit - tle hills with verdure clad Are girt with joy, by Thee made glad; The flocks in pastures lie;

The east, where beams the morning light, The west, in evening glories bright, By Thee in gladness shout.
By God's own riv-er, deep and broad, Thou wilt prepare their corn, O God, By Thy pro-vid - ing hand.
The year Thou hast with goodness crowned, Thy paths drop fatness all around, Ev'n on the wil - der - ness.
The vales are robed with waving grain, And shout and song from hill and plain Swell joyous to the sky.

131 God Blessed For His Gracious Benefits

PSALM 66. C. M. 7-14 MODERN HARP

1. O all ye peo - ple, bless our God, A - loud pro - claim His praise,
2. For Thou hast proved and tried us, Lord, As men do sil - ver try;
3. Thou o'er our heads hast caused that men Tri - um - phant - ly should ride;

Through fire and flood Thou to a place Of plen - ty didst us guide.
Which my lips ut - tered, my mouth spoke, When trou - ble on me lay.

("Hymn")

5 Burnt-sacrifices of fat rams
With incense I will bring;
Of bullocks and of goats I will Present an offering.

6 All that fear God, come, hear, I'll tell
What He did for my soul;
I with my mouth cried unto Him,
My tongue did Him extol.

7 If in my heart I sin regard,
Jehovah will not hear;
But surely God hath heard my voice,
Attending to my prayer.

8 O let the Lord, our gracious God,
Forever blessed be,
Who hath not turned my prayer from Him,
Nor yet His grace from me.

And then Thy congregations
Did make their dwelling there;
O God, Thou of Thy goodness
For poor ones didst prepare.

6 The Lord the word delivered,
And many heard the same;
Of those great was the number
Who did the word proclaim.
Kings at the head of armies
Were forced to flee away,
And she at home who tarried
Distributed the prey.

7 Though ye 'midst pots were lying,
Like doves ye shall appear,
Whose wings are clothed with silver,
Whose feathers golden are.
When kings th'Almighty scattered,

Like Bashan hill for height.

8 Why leap, ye lofty mountains?
This hill the Lord loves well;
It is His habitation,

Thy foot imbrued may be,
And of thy dogs dipped in it
The tongues thou mayest see.
O God, they've seen Thy goings
Of majesty and grace,
My God, my King, Thy goings
Within Thy holy place.

5 Before went singers, next them
The players took their way;
Amongst them were the damsels
That did on timbrels play.
Within the congregations
Bless God with one accord;
Bless ye from Israel's fountain,
And praise the mighty Lord.

6 There Judah's chiefs in council,
With little Benjamin
Their prince, and chiefs of Zab'lon
And Naphtali are seen.
Thy God thy strength commandeth,
Make strong Thy work, O Lord;
For Thy house at Jerusalem
Kings shall Thee gifts afford.

7 The spearmen's host, great numbers
Of bulls, which fiercely look,
With calves sent by the people,
O Lord our God, rebuke.
Till all shall yield submission,
And silver pieces bring;
Those who in war take pleasure,
Disperse, O God and King.

8 Then princes great and mighty
Shall come from Egypt lands;
To God in supplication
Shall Cush stretch forth his hands.

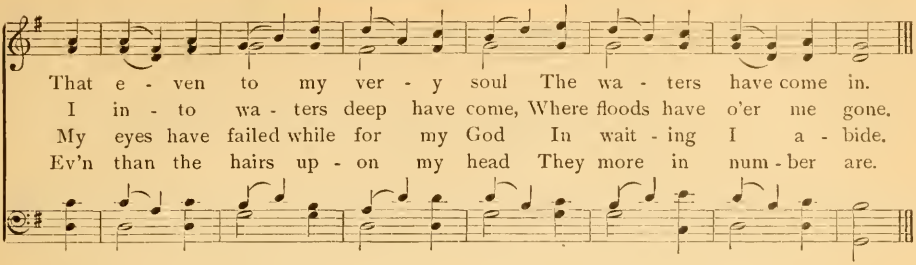
138 Messiah's Manifold Sufferings

PSALM 69. S. M. 1-16 — H. G. NAGELI

1. Save me, O God; the floods so vi - o - lent have been,
2. I'm sink - ing in deep mire, Where stand - ing there is none;
3. I'm wea - ry with my cries, My throat is al - so dried;
4. Those who with - out a cause A - gainst me ha - tred bear,

("Dennis")



5 Those who would me destroy,
My en'mies wrongfully,
Are mighty; then what I took not
Restore again did I.

6 My sins and follies, Lord,
Are not concealed from Thee;
Let none who wait on Thee be shamed,
Lord God of hosts, for me.

7 O God of Israel,
For me let no disgrace
Or shame be brought on any one
Who truly seeks Thy face.

8 Because for Thee reproached,
My face is hid with shame;
To brethren strange, to mother's sons
An alien I became.

9 The zeal hath me consumed
Which to Thy house I bear,
And those reproaches cast on Thee
Upon me fallen are.

10 My tears and my sad fasts
Were counted as my shame;
When sackcloth I put on, to them
A proverb I became.

11 Those sitting in the gate
Against me evil spake,
And drunkards also in their cups
Of me their song did make.

12 But in th' accepted time,
Lord, I will pray to Thee;
In truth of Thy salvation, Lord,
And mercy great, hear me.

13 O take me from the mire,
And me from sinking keep;
From those who hate me save Thou me,
And from the waters deep.

14 Let not the flood prevail,
Whose water overflows,
Nor deep me swallow, nor the pit
Her mouth upon me close.

15 Lord, hear me, for Thy love
And kindness are most good;
O turn, and manifest to me
Thy mercies' multitude.

16 Hide not Thy face from me,
I'm troubled, soon attend;
Draw near, Thy servant's soul redeem,
Me from my foes defend.

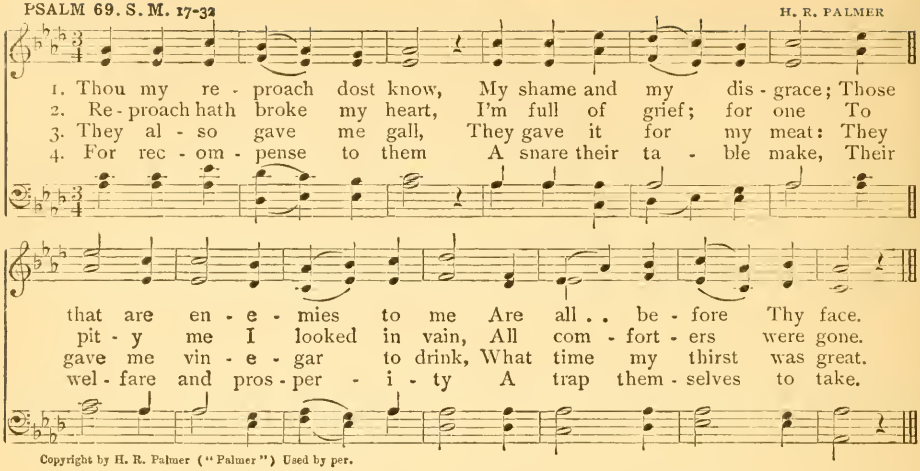
PSALM 69. S. M. 17-32 H. R. PALMER



Copyright by H. R. Palmer ("Palmer") Used by per.

5 So darkened be their eyes,
That they no light may see,
And let their loins by Thee be made
To shake continually.

6 Fierce wrath pour forth, let it
Fast hold upon them take;
And let their tents be desolate,
None there his dwelling make.

7 For him they persecute
Whom Thou didst smite before,
And to the grief of those they talk
Whom Thou hast wounded sore.

8 Add Thou iniquity
To their past wickedness,
And never let them come at all
Into Thy righteousness.

9 And from the book of life
Their names let be erased,
And in the record of the just
Let not their names be placed.

10 But now exceeding poor
And sorrowful am I;
By Thy salvation, O my God,
Let me be set on high.

11 I, with a song to God,
His praises will proclaim,
And I, in giving thanks to Him,
Will magnify His name.

12 To God this sacrifice
Shall be more pleasing far
Than ox or bullock, beasts on which
Both horns and hoofs there are.

13 When this the humble see,
It joy to them shall give;
All ye who truly seek the Lord,
He'll make your hearts to live.

14 God hears the poor, nor will
His prisoners contemn.
Let heaven and earth and seas Him praise,
And all that move in them.

15 He'll Judah's cities build,
And Zion He will save,
That they may dwell therein, and it
A sure possession have.

16 His servants' children, too,
Inherit shall the same,
And those shall have their dwelling there
Who love His blessed name.

For Thou, O Lord God, art my hope, And from my youth my trust.

("Holy Trinity")

5 Thou from my birth hast held me up,
Thou art the same that me
Out of my mother's womb didst take;
I ever will praise Thee.

6 To many I a wonder am;
Thou art my refuge strong:
Filled let my mouth be with Thy praise
And honor all day long.

7 O do not cast me off, when me
Old age doth overtake,
And in the day of failing strength,
O do not me forsake.

8 For they who are my enemies
Against me speak with hate,
And they together counsel take
Who for my soul lay wait.

9 They say God leaves him, him pursue
And take, for none will save;
Be Thou not far from me, my God,
Thy speedy help I crave.

My adversaries be,
And clothed with scorn and shame be they
Who seek to injure me.

While lasts the moon shall peace extend;
From sea to sea shall be His sway,
And from the river to earth's end.

5 To Him shall bow who dwell in wilds,
Down to the dust His foes shall bend;
The kings of Tarshish, and the isles,
Sheba and Seba, gifts shall send.

6 They set their mouth against the heavens
In their blaspheming talk,
And their reproaching tongue at large
Throughout the earth doth walk.

7 His people, therefore, oftentimes
Look back, and turn about,
And in abundance unto them
The waters are wrung out.

8 And thus they say, How can it be
That God these things doth know?
Or, Can there in the Highest be
Knowledge of things below?

9 Behold how these the wicked ones
Do prosper at their will
In worldly things; how they increase
In wealth and riches still!

7 Even like an empty dream when one
From sleeping doth arise,
So Thou, when Thou awakest, Lord,
Their image shalt despise.

8 Thus grieved within me was my heart,
And me my reins oppressed;
So rude was I, and ignorant,
And in Thy sight a beast.

9 Yet notwithstanding this, O Lord,
I ever am with Thee;
Thou hast me held by my right hand,
And still upholdest me.

10 With Thy good counsel while I live
Thou wilt me safely guide,
And into glory afterward
Receive me to abide.

5 Amidst Thy congregations, Lord,
Thy enemies do roar:
Their ensigns they set up for signs
‖: Of triumph, Thee before. :‖

6 A man was famous, and was held
In honor and renown,
According as with lifted axe
‖: He cut the thicket down. :‖

7 But all at once with axes now
And hammers they engage,
And all the carved work thereof
‖: They break down in their rage. :‖

8 Thy holy place they set on fire;
They have defiled the same
By casting down, even to the ground,
‖: The place where dwelt Thy name. :‖

9 They said in heart, "Now let them be
To one destruction doomed;"
God's synagogues in all the land
‖: With fire they have consumed. :‖

10 Our signs we do not now behold,
There is not us among
A prophet now, nor any one
‖: Who knows the time how long. :‖

11 How long shall adversaries, Lord,
Thus in reproach exclaim?
Shall enemies forever thus ‖: Blaspheme Thy holy name? :‖

12 Thy hand, even Thy right hand of might,
Why dost Thou thus draw back?
O from Thy bosom pluck it out
‖: For our deliv'rance sake. :‖

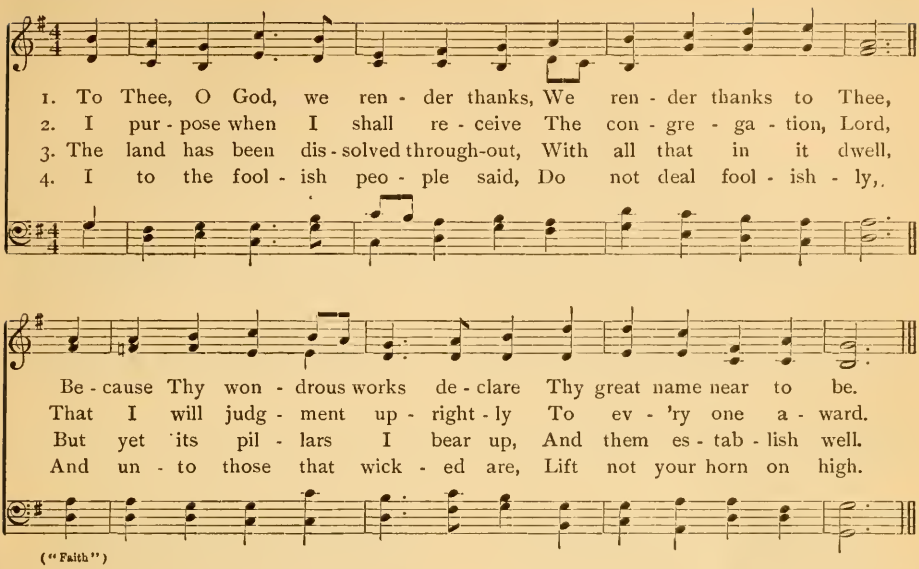
PSALM 75. C. M. JOHN B. DYKES



5 Lift not your horn on high, nor speak
With stubborn neck; but know,
Promotion not from east, nor west,
Nor from the south doth flow.

6 But God is judge, He puts down one,
And sets another up;
For in the hands of God Most High
Of red wine is a cup.

7 'Tis full of mixture; He pours forth,
And makes the wicked all
Wring out the bitter dregs thereof;
Yea, and they drink them shall.

8 But I forever will exult,
I Jacob's God will praise,
All power of sinners will cut off,
But just men's power will raise.

5 By Thee the borders of the earth
Were settled everywhere;
The summer and the winter both
By Thee created were.

6 That spiteful foes have Thee reproached,
In memory record,
And that the foolish people have
Blasphemed Thy name, O Lord.

7 O do not to the multitude
Thy turtle's soul give o'er;
The congregation of Thy poor
Forget not evermore.

8 Lord, to Thy cov'nant have respect,
Because in every clime
Are earth's dark places filled with homes
Of cruelty and crime.

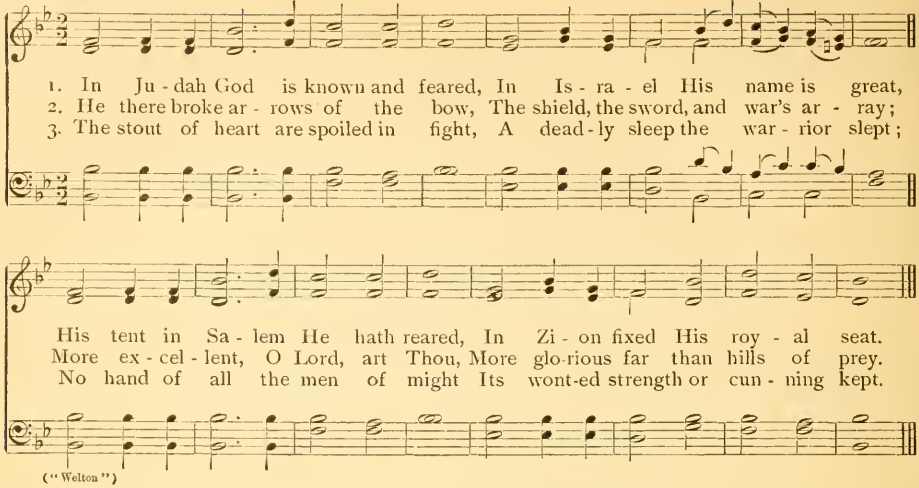
9 O let not those that are oppressed
Return again with shame;
Let those that poor and needy are
Give praises to Thy name.

10 Do Thou, O God, arise and plead
The cause that is Thy own:
Remember how Thou art reproached
Still by the foolish one.

11 O Lord, do not forget the voice
Of such as are Thy foes;
Of them that up against Thee rise
The tumult ever grows.

155 Zion's Glory And Zion's Safety

PSALM 76. L. M. C. H. A. MALAN



4 O Jacob's God, at Thy command
The chariot and the horse went down;
For Thou art dreadful; who can stand
Before the tempest of Thy frown?

5 From heaven Jehovah judgment gave;
The trembling earth stood still and feared,
When all the meek on earth to save,
For righteous judgment God appeared.

6 The wrath of man Thee praise shall bring,
Remaining wrath Thy hand shall stay;
Vow to the Lord your God and King,
Be faithful all your vows to pay.

7 Let all around their presents bring
To Him Whom all the world should fear:
He cuts off princes; God the King
Shall dreadful to earth's kings appear.

5 The works of old done by the Lord,
Thy wondrous works I will record;
I'll muse on all Thy works so vast,
And talk of all Thy doings past.

6 The holy place is Thy abode;
What god so great as is our God?
Thy wondrous works Thou hast made known,
Thy strength among the people shown.

7 Thy arm the sons of Jacob saved,
And Joseph's offspring when enslaved.
The waters saw Thee, God of might,
The waters saw Thee with affright.

8 Then troubled was the mighty main,
The clouds poured out abundant rain,
The lowering skies sent out a sound,
And far Thy arrows blazed around.

9 Thy lightnings flashed, Thy thunders pealed,
The trembling earth in terror reeled;
Thou through the sea Thy way didst keep,
Thy path was in the mighty deep.

10 Thy footsteps were to all unknown,
Thy goodness to Thy flock was shown;
By Moses' and by Aaron's hand
Thou didst them guide to Canaan's land.

3 His testimony and His law
In Isr'el did He place,
And charged our fathers it to show
To their succeeding race;
That so the race which was to come
These things might learn and know,
And sons unborn, who should arise,
Might to their sons them show;

4 That they might set their hope in God,
And suffer not to fall
His mighty works out of their mind,
But keep His precepts all:
And might not, like their fathers, be
A stiff rebellious race,
A race not right in heart, with God
Whose spirit faithless was.

5 The sons of Ephraim, who nor bows
Nor other arms did lack,
When as the day of battle was
Yet faintly turnéd back.
They broke God's cov'nant, and refused
In His commands to go;
His works and wonders they forgot,
Which He to them did show.

6 Things marvellous He brought to pass;
Their fathers them beheld
Within the land of Egypt done,
Yea, even Zoan's field.
By Him divided was the sea,
He led them through the flood;
The waters on each side He raised,
Till as a heap they stood.

7 With cloud by day, with light of fire
All night He did them guide;
In desert rocks He cleft, and drink,
As from great depths, supplied.
He also from the rock brought streams,
Like floods made waters run;
Yet, sinning more, in desert they
Provoked the highest One.

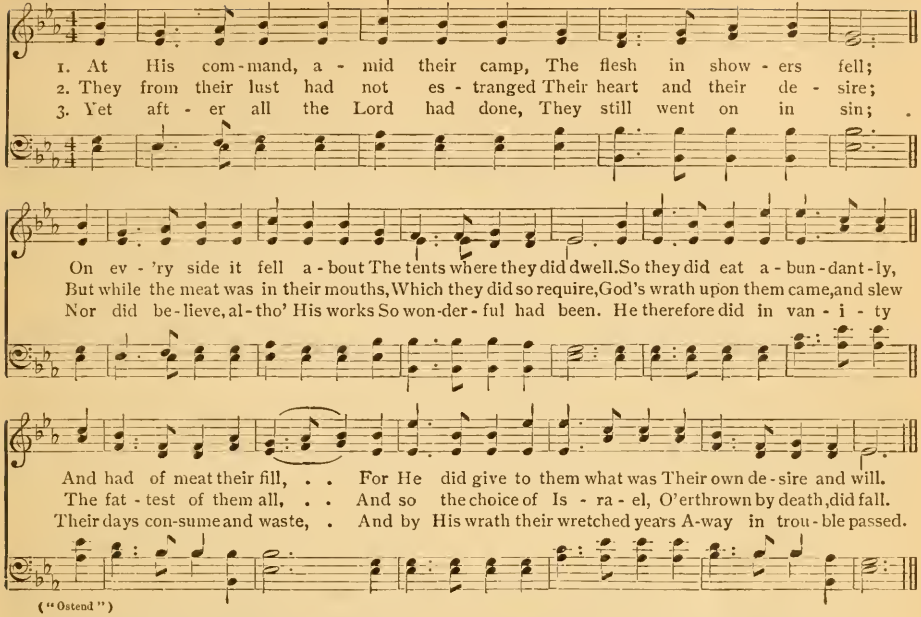
8 For in their heart they tempted God,
And, speaking with mistrust,
They greedily did meat require
To satisfy their lust.
Against the Lord Himself they spoke,
And, murmuring, said thus,
"A table in the wilderness
Can God prepare for us?

9 Behold, He smote the rock, and thence
Came streams and waters great,
But can He give His people bread,
And send them flesh to eat?"
Jehovah heard, His wrath arose:
Then kindled was a flame
On Jacob, and on Israel
His indignation came.

10 For they believed not God, nor trust
In His salvation had,
Though clouds above He did command,
And heaven's doors open made,
And manna rained on them, and gave
Them corn of heav'n to eat.
Man angels' food did eat; to them
He to the full sent meat.

11 He in the heaven also caused
An eastern wind to blow,
And by His power He let out
The southern wind to go.
Then flesh He rained on them like dust
Which cannot numbered be,
And feathered fowls in numbers vast
Like sands along the sea.

PSALM 78. C. M. 23-44 DR. L. MASON



("Ostend")

4 But when He slew them, then they did
To seek Him show desire;
Yea, they returned, and after God
Did earnestly inquire.
And that the Lord had been their Rock
They did remember then,
And that the high almighty God
Had their Redeemer been.

5 Yet with their mouth they flattered Him,
And with their tongues they lied;
Their heart was not sincere: they from
His cov'nant turned aside.
But, full of pity, He forgave
Their sin, nor did them slay;
Nor stirred up all His wrath, but oft
His anger turned away.

6 For that they were but fading flesh
To mind He did recall,
A wind that passeth soon away,
And ne'er returns at all.
How often in the wilderness
Did they provoke His wrath!
How often grieve Him as they marched
Along their desert path!

7 Yea, turning back, they tempt the Lord
And boldly limits place
About the High and Holy One,
The God of Israel's race.
And they remembered not His hand,
Nor yet the noted day
When He redeemed them from the foe
Who sought them for his prey.

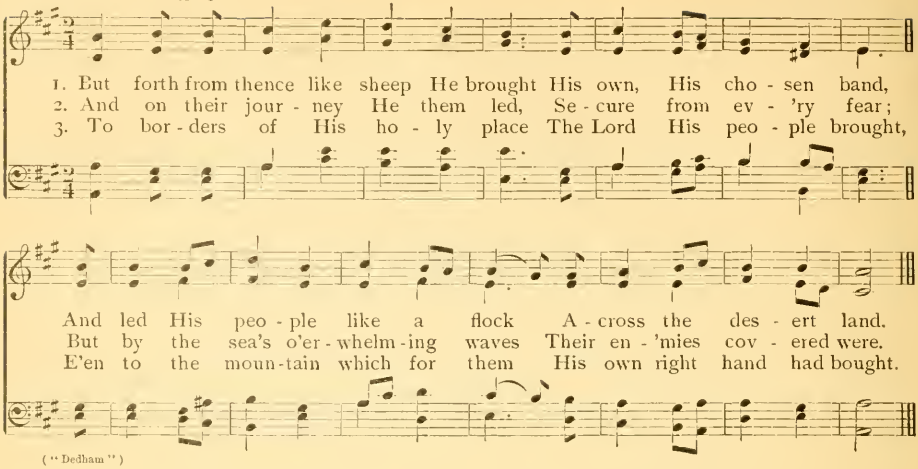
8 Nor how great signs in Egypt land
He openly had wrought,
What miracles in Zoan's field
His hand to pass had brought;
How He their rivers and their lakes
Turned everywhere to blood,
That neither man nor beast could drink
Of standing lake or flood.

9 Devouring flies, of divers sorts,
The Lord among them brought,
And swarms of frogs o'er all the land,
Which great destruction wrought.
He to the caterpillar gave
The fruits of all their soil;
He gave the labors of their hands
To be the locust's spoil.

10 Their vines with hail, their sycamores
He with the frost did blast;
Their beasts to hail He gave; their flocks
Hot thunderbolts did waste.
He cast upon them anger fierce,
To burning wrath gave vent,
In indignation troubled them
By evil angels sent.

11 He did not spare their soul from death,
But for His wrath made way,
And to the fearful pestilence
He gave their life a prey.
And over Egypt's land He smote
Their first-born, and their pride,
Till everywhere in tents of Ham
Their chief of strength had died.

PSALM 78. C. M. 45-63 WM. GARDINER



("Dedham")

4 The nations which in Canaan dwelt
He also by His hand,
Before His people's face, expelled
Beyond their native land;

5 Which for inheritance to them
By line He did divide,
And made the tribes of Israel
Within their tents abide.

6 But God Most High they did provoke,
They tempted Him again;
His testimonies to observe
Their will did not incline:

7 But, like their fathers, they turned back
In faithlessness and pride,
And like a false, deceitful bow,
They all were turned aside.

8 Because to anger they provoked
The Lord with places high,
And with their graven images
Moved Him to jealousy.

9 When God heard this, He angry was,
And much loathed Isr'el then:
So Shiloh's tent He left, the tent
Which He had placed with men.

10 And He His strength delivered o'er
To long captivity;
He left His glory in the hand
Of His proud enemy.

11 His people also to the sword
In anger o'er He turned:
Against His own inheritance
His wrath so fiercely burned.

12 The fire consumed their choice young men,
Their maids no marriage had,
And when their priests fell by the sword,
Their wives no mourning made.

13 But then the Lord arose, as one
That doth from sleep awake,
And like a giant that, by wine
Refreshed, a shout doth make.

14 And on the backs of fleeing foes
He caused His strokes to fall,
And to reproach perpetual
He put His en'mies all.

15 Moreover Joseph's tent He spurned,
Nor Ephraim's tribe approved;
But Judah's tent Jehovah chose,
The Zion Mount He loved.

16 And like the firm and lofty hills
He built His holy place;
Yea, strong as earth's foundations fast,
He gave it changeless base.

17 Of David as His servant then
He sovereign choice did make,
And him, from out the folds of sheep,
The Lord was pleased to take.

18 From waiting on the suckling ewes,
He brought him forth to feed
His Israel, His heritage,
His people, Jacob's seed.

19 So with integrity of heart
He did them wisely feed,
And with his skilfulness of hands
He did them safely lead.

6 On heathen pour Thy wrath
Like fierce consuming flame,
On kingdoms which have never known
Nor called upon Thy name.

7 Because they have devoured
Thy servant Jacob's race;
They have made desolate and waste
His pleasant dwelling-place.

8 Mind not our former sins,
Thy tender mercies show;
O let them visit us with speed,
We are brought very low.

9 For Thy name's glory help,
Who hast our Saviour been;
Deliver us for Thy name's sake,
And purge away our sin.

10 Why should the heathen scoff,
And say, "Where is their God?"
Be known to them before our eyes
Avenging Thy saints' blood.

11 In mercy, Lord, draw near
And hear the pris'ner's sigh;
Preserve those in Thy mighty power
That are condemned to die.

12 And to our neighbors, Lord,
Be seven-fold repaid,
To their own bosoms, that reproach
Which they on Thee have laid.

13 So we Thy chosen flock
Will ever praise Thy name;
With thankful hearts to ages all
Thy praise we will proclaim.

PSALM 80. 11S — THOS. KOSCHAT

3. How long wilt Thou turn in fierce an - ger a - way, O Lord God of Hosts, when Thy peo - ple do pray? With tear-bread of sor - row their ta - ble is laid; Of tears' bit - ter mix - ture their drink Thou hast made, Of tears' bit - ter mix - ture their drink Thou hast made.

5 From Egypt's dark border a vine Thou didst take,
Destroying the heathen didst room for it make;
Where planted it grew at Thy sov'reign command.
With roots deeply set and boughs filling the land.

6 The mountains were covered beneath its deep shade,
The cedars of God with the boughs it displayed;
Her boughs to the sea afar off she did send,
Her branches far out to the river extend.

7 O why hast Thou taken her hedges away,
That all who pass by her may make her a prey?
The boar from the forest destroys at his will,
The beasts of the field are devouring her still.

8 Return, God of Hosts, O return unto Thine,
Look down from the heavens and visit this vine,
This vine which was planted by Thy mighty hand,
This branch for Thyself which Thou madest to stand.

9 The axe hews it down; it is burned in the fire;
They perish, rebuked in Thy terrible ire.
O lay then Thy hand on the man of Thy might,
The Son of Man made to stand strong in Thy sight.

10 No more shall we wander, delighting in shame;
Revive us, O Lord, we will call on Thy name;
O Lord God of Hosts, us restore to Thy grace,
And then we shall live in the light of Thy face.

173 Seeking God In Faith

PSALM 86. C. M. J. H. TENNEY

5 O Lord, my prayer hear; the voice
Of my request attend:
In troublous times I'll call on Thee,
For Thou wilt answer send.

6 O Lord, among the heathen gods
Like Thee there is not one;
Nor are there any works, O Lord,
Like those which Thou hast done.

7 All nations, Lord, whom Thou hast made
Shall come and praise proclaim;
Before Thy face they worship shall,
And glorify Thy name.

8 Because Thou art exceeding great,
And works by Thee are done,
Which are to be admired; and Thou
Art God Thyself alone.

9 Teach me Thy way, and in Thy truth,
O Lord, then walk will I;
Unite my heart, that I Thy name
May fear continually.

10 Because Thy mercy toward me
In greatness doth excel,
And Thou delivered hast my soul
Out from the lowest hell.

11 O God, the proud against me rise,
And violent men have met,
That for my soul have sought, and Thee
Before them have not set.

12 But Thou, Jehovah, art a God
In Whom compassions flow;
Thy mercy, grace, and truth abound,
Thou art to anger slow.

13 O turn to me Thy countenance,
And mercy on me have;
Thy servant strengthen, and the son
Of Thine own handmaid save.

14 Show me a sign for good, that they
Who do me hate may see
And be ashamed; because Thou, Lord,
Didst help and comfort me.

PSALM 88. 8s & 7s

Cantabile

1. O Thou God of my sal - va - tion, Day and night I cried to Thee;
2. Free to sleep in death's dark cham-ber, Like the slain with - in the grave;
3. Friendship's ties by Thee are bro - ken, Friends are ban - ished from my sight;
4. Shall the dead, to life re - turn - ing, Rise and sing Thy won-ders, Lord?

Scorned by them, my name is spo - ken; Closed on me is sor - row's night.
Shall the grave Thy love be learn - ing, Death Thy faith - ful - ness re - cord?

Filled with grief, my soul is sigh - ing, To the grave my life draws near;
In the pit Thy hand has laid me, In the dark - ness and in deeps;
Mourns my eye, my pow-ers lan - guish, Sore af - flic - tion press-es me;
Shall Thy works and won-drous do - ing Be pro - claimed in dark-ness deep?

Num-bered now a - mong the dy - ing, Like one help - less I ap - pear.
Sore - ly has Thy wrath dis-mayed me, O'er my soul af - flic - tion sweeps.

5 But, O Lord, at dawn awaking,
Prayer and cries I'll send to Thee;
Why, my God, my soul forsaking,
Hidest Thou Thy face from me?
All my days I've been afflicted,
Ready from my youth to die;
I with suff'rings am distracted,
While Thy terrors on me lie.

6 Flames of wrath are o'er me leaping,
Horrors great upon me roll;
Round they come like waters sweeping,
Daily compassing my soul.
Thou my dearest friends hast banished,
My companions put to flight;
All acquaintances have vanished,
Driven to the shades of night.

4 The wonders done by Thee, O Lord,
The heaven shall in praise record;
Thy faithfulness shall praise command,
When holy ones assembled stand.

5 For who in heaven 'mid dwellers there
Can to the Lord Himself compare?
Or who, among the mighty, shares
The likeness that Jehovah bears?

6 Great fear and dread to God belong,
Where holy ones in council throng;
Yea, He inspires great dread and fear
In all who round His throne appear.

7 O Thou Jehovah, God of Hosts,
What mighty one Thy likeness boasts?
Thy faithfulness is ever found
Encircling all Thy path around.

8 The swelling sea Thou dost control,
And still its billows when they roll;
Rahab as slain Thou didst subdue,
Thine arm of strength Thy foes o'erthrew.

9 The earth belongs to Thee alone,
The heavens, too, are all Thine own;
The world and all that it contains,
By Thee established, Thine remains.

10 The north and south Thy hands did frame:
Tabor and Hermon praise Thy name:
Great strength within Thy arm doth lie,
Thy hand is strong, Thy right hand high.

11 On righteousness Thy throne is stayed,
On justice its foundations laid;
Before Thy face, Thy way to show,
Shall truth and mercy ever go.

5 Yea, I have raised to honor great
One chosen from the people's state;
My servant David I have found,
And him as My anointed crowned.

6 With him My hand shall still remain,
Mine arm with strength shall him sustain;
The foe shall never him annoy,
Nor son of wrong his peace destroy.

180 God's Covenant With Christ

PSALM 89. L. M. 18-33 — From BEETHOVEN

1: I'll crush be - fore him ev - 'ry foe, His hat - ers smite and o - ver - throw;
2. Yea, he shall tri - umph in My name, And great shall be his pow'r and fame;
3. Thou art my Fa - ther, he shall cry, My God, my Rock, my Sav - iour nigh;
4. My grace for him I'll keep se - cure, My cov - e - nant to him is sure;

My faith - ful - ness to him I'll prove, And ne'er from him My grace re - move.
I'll set his hand up - on the sea, His right hand on the floods shall be.
As My first - born I will him own, O'er kings of earth will set his throne.
His seed for - ev - er I'll main - tain, His throne while days of heav'n re - main.

("Germany")

5 But if his sons My law forsake,
If they My holy statutes break,
If from My judgments they shall stray,
And My commands will not obey,

6 Then with a rod their sins I'll smite,
Their guilt with stripes will I requite;
Yet him My grace shall not forsake,
My truth I will not falsehood make.

7 My cov'nant I will not evade,
Nor change the promise I have made;
Once in My holiness have I
To David sworn, and will not lie.

8 His seed forever shall endure,
And as the sun his throne is sure,
Eternal as the moon on high,
The faithful witness in the sky.

9 Yet now Thine anger hotly burns,
And Thine Anointed loaths and spurns;
Thy servant's covenant we see
Made void as if abhorred by Thee.

10 Thou to the earth hast trampled down
And thus profaned his sacred crown;
His walls all prostrate Thou hast laid,
His fortresses a ruin made.

11 The passers-by upon him prey,
His neighbors turn in scorn away;
His foes' right hand hast Thou made strong,
And giv'n to them the victor's song.

12 His blunted sword hast Thou repelled,
Nor in the battle him upheld;
His glory now no more is known,
And Thou to earth hast cast his throne.

13 His days of youth so quickly past,
The garb of shame is o'er him cast;
How long, Lord, hide Thyself in ire?
Shall wrath forever burn like fire?

14 Think on my life, 'tis but a span;
Why thus in vain hast Thou made man?
What man that lives has power to save
His soul from death, and from the grave?

15 Where are Thy former mercies, where,
Which Thou in truth to David sware?
Remember, Lord, Thy servant's scorn,
And mine, from mighty people borne.

16 The scorn, O Lord, Thy foes have shown,
On Thine Anointed's footsteps thrown,
Remember, let it be redressed:
Forever let the Lord be blessed.

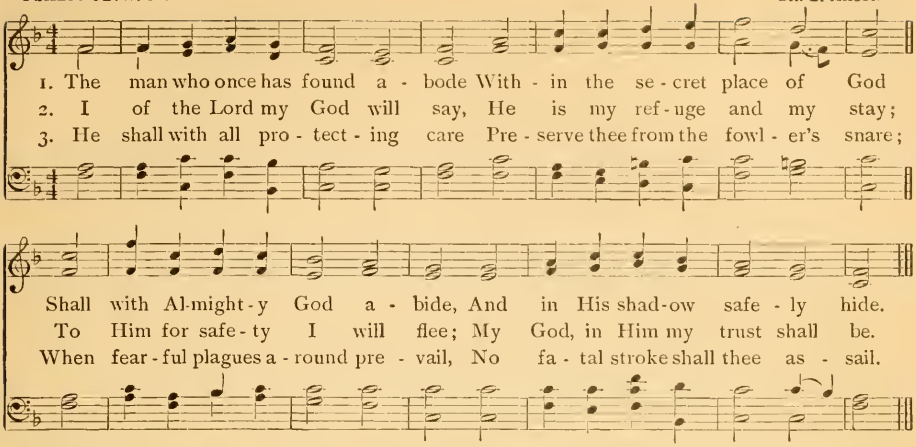
PSALM 91. L. M. DR. L. MASON



("Uxbridge")

4 His outspread pinions shall thee hide;
Beneath His wings shalt thou confide;
His faithfulness shall ever be
A shield and buckler unto thee.

5 No nightly terrors shall alarm,
No deadly shaft by day shall harm,
Nor pestilence that walks by night,
Nor plagues that waste in noon-day light.

6 A thousand at thy side shall lie,
At thy right hand ten thousand die,
But thou unharmed, secure, shalt see
What wicked men's reward shall be.

7 Because thy trust is God alone,
Thy dwelling-place the Highest One,
No evil shall upon thee come,
Nor plague approach thy guarded home.

8 O'er thee His angels He commands
To bear thee safely in their hands,
To keep thee in thy ways each one,
Nor dash thy foot against a stone.

9 Thy foot shall crush the adder's head,
On lions and on dragons tread;
And since on Me he set his love,
I will his constant Saviour prove.

10 Because to him My name is dear,
I'll him exalt above all fear.
To Me he'll lift his earnest cry,
And I will answer from on high.

11 I will be near when troubles press;
I'll save him, and with honors bless;
With life he satisfied shall be,
And My salvation he shall see.

5 But like the horn of unicorns,

My eye shall also my desire
See on my enemies;
My ears shall of the wicked hear,

Those that within the house of God

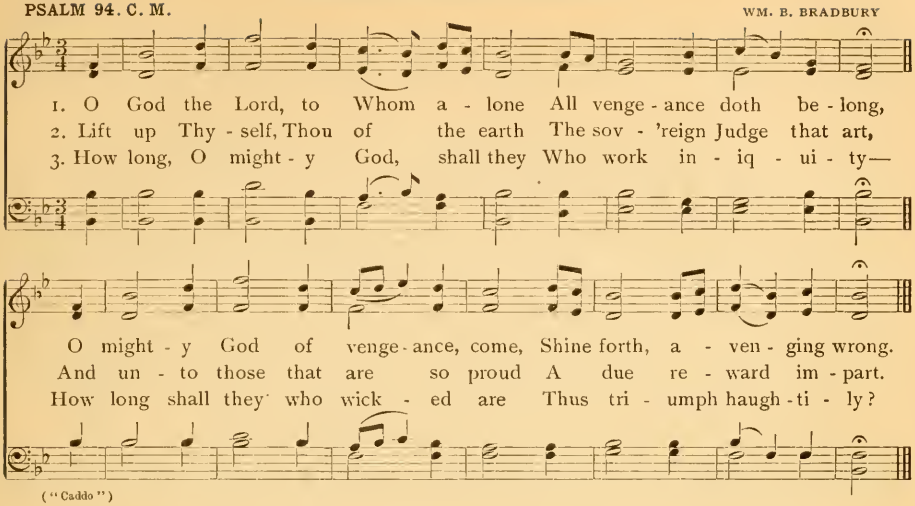
189 The Equity Of God's Providence

PSALM 94. C. M. WM. B. BRADBURY



4 How long shall things so hard by them
Still uttered be and told,
And all that work iniquity
To boast themselves be bold?

5 For they Thy people crush, O Lord,
Thy heritage oppress,
The widow and the stranger slay;
They kill the fatherless.

6 And yet they say, God will not see,
Nor God of Jacob know.
Ye brutish people! understand:
Fools! when wise will ye grow?

7 The Lord did plant the ear of man,
And hear then shall not He?
He also formed the eye, and then
Shall He not clearly see?

8 He that the nations doth correct,
Shall He not chasten you?
He knowledge unto man doth teach,
And shall Himself not know?

9 Man's thoughts to be but vanity
The Lord doth well discern.
Blest is the man Thou chast'nest, Lord,
And mak'st Thy law to learn:

10 That Thou mayst give him rest from days
Of sad adversity,
Until the pit be digged for them
That work iniquity.

11 Because the Lord will not cast off
His people utterly,
Nor shall His own inheritance
By Him forsaken be.

12 But judgment unto righteousness
Shall yet return again,
And all shall follow after it
That are right-hearted men.

13 O who will rise for me against
Those that do wickedly?
And who will stand for me 'gainst those
That work iniquity?

14 Unless the Lord had been my help
When I was sore oppressed,
My soul had almost in the house
Of silence been at rest.

15 When I through fear had spoken thus,
"My foot doth slip away,"
Thy mercy held me up, O Lord,
Thy goodness did me stay.

16 When anxious thoughts my heart oppress
And fill my soul with grief,
The consolations of Thy grace
To me afford relief.

17 Shall of iniquity the throne
Have fellowship with Thee,
Which mischief, cunningly contrived,
Doth by a law decree?

18 Against the righteous souls they join,
They guiltless blood condemn,
But of my refuge God's the rock,
And my defence from them.

19 On them their own iniquity
The Lord Himself shall lay;
He'll cut them off in their own sin,
The Lord our God them slay.

PSALM 95. C. M. C. C. CASE

1. O come, let us, in songs to God, Our cheer-ful voi - ces raise, In joy - ful shouts let us the Rock Of our sal - va - tion praise.

4 To Him the spacious sea belongs,
For He the same did make;
The dry land also from His hands
Its form at first did take.

5 O come, and let us worship Him,
Let us bow down withal,
And on our knees, before the Lord
Our Maker, let us fall.

6 Because He only is our God,
And we the people are
Of His own pasture, and the sheep
Of His almighty care.

7 To-day, if ye His voice will hear,
Your hearts then harden not,
As they in desert did provoke
And tempt His anger hot.

8 Your fathers did Me tempt and prove,
They did My working see,
And for the space of forty years
This race hath grieved Me.

195 Christ's Universal Sovereignty

PSALM 97. L. M. WM. B. BRADBURY

1. Je - ho - vah reigns; let earth be glad, And all her is - lands clap their hands;
2. A fi - ery stream be - fore Him goes, And burns a - round Him all His foes;
3. Like wax the moun - tains melt a - way Be - fore His maj - es - ty di - vine;
4. Be shamed who i - dols serve and boast, Fear Him, ye gods, with all your host;

With clouds and dark - ness He is clad, His throne in right and judg-ment stands.
His light - ning shafts, in vengeance hurled, Blaze lu - rid o'er the trem-bling world.
The heav'ns His right - eous - ness dis - play, All na - tions see His glo - ry shine.
When Zi - on glad Thy judg-ments heard, Then Ju - dah's daughters prais'd the Lord.

5 Exalted is Thy throne, O Lord,
Above all gods, above all lands;
Hate evil, ye who love His word,
His saints He frees from wicked hands.

6 For all the righteous sown is light,
And joy for men in heart upright;
Ye saints rejoice in God, Him bless,
When musing on His holiness.

196 Christ's Ultimate Triumph

PSALM 98. L. M. ETIENNE HENRI MEHUL

1. Come, let us sing un - to the Lord New songs of praise with sweet ac - cord,
2. The great sal - va - tion of our God Is seen thro' all the earth a - broad;
3. He call'd to mind His truth and grace In prom-ise made to Is - rael's race,

For won-ders great by Him are done, His hand and arm have vic - t'ry won.
Be - fore the hea-then's won-d'ring sight He hath re - vealed His truth and right.
And un - to earth's re - mot - est bound Glad ti-dings of sal - va - tion sound.

("Gilead")

4 All lands to God lift up your voice;
Sing praise to Him, with shouts rejoice;
With voice of joy and loud acclaim
Let all unite and praise His name.

5 Praise God with harp, with harp sing praise,
With voice of psalms His glory raise;
With trumpets, cornets, gladly sing
And shout before the Lord the King.

6 Let earth be glad, let billows roar,
And all that dwell from shore to shore;
Let floods clap hands with one accord,
Let hills rejoice before the Lord;

7 For lo, He comes; at His command
All nations shall in judgment stand;
In justice robed, and throned in light,
The Lord shall judge, dispensing right.

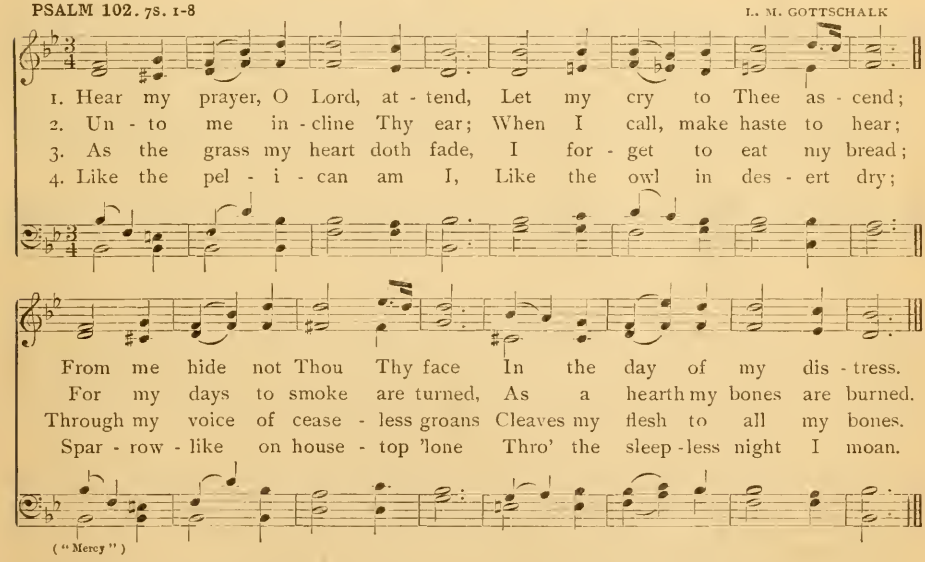
203 A Prayer Of Helpless Distress

PSALM 102. 7s. 1-8

L. M. GOTTSCHALK



5 From my foes, who speak with scorn,
Vile reproach I've daily borne;
They that mad against me are
In their rage against me swear.

6 I ate ashes for my bread,
Mixed my drink with tears I shed;
This, for Thy displeasure, Lord,
And Thy wrath upon me poured.

7 Thou hast lifted me on high,
But cast down again am I;
All my days as shadows pass,
And I wither like the grass.

8 But, O Lord, Thou shalt endure,
Still the same for evermore;
Thee to mind shall men recall
Through the coming ages all.

6 But at the voice of Thy rebuke
They fled, and would not stay;
They at Thy thunder's dreadful voice
Did hasten fast away.

7 They by the mountains do ascend,
And by the valley-ground
Descend again to that same place
Which Thou for them didst found.

8 To them a limit Thou hast set,
O'er which they may not go,
That they do not return again
The earth to overflow.

9 He to the valleys sends the springs
Which run among the hills:
They to all beasts of field give drink,
Wild asses drink their fills.

10 The fowls of heaven their dwellings have
Beside each flowing spring.
And there among the branches they
With joyful voices sing.

11 He from His chambers watereth
The hills when they are dried,
And with the fruit of these Thy works
The earth is satisfied.

12 He makes the grass for cattle grow,
He makes the herb to spring
For use of man, that food to him

5 Thou darkness mak'st, 'tis night, then beasts
Of forests creep abroad;
The lions young do roar for prey
And seek their meat from God.

6 The sun doth rise, and home they flock;
Down in their dens they lie.
Man goes to work, his labor he
Doth to the ev'ning ply.

7 How manifold, O Lord, Thy works;
In wisdom wonderful
Thou ev'ry one of them hast made;
Earth's of Thy riches full:

8 So is this great and spacious sea,
Wherein things creeping are,
Which numbered cannot be; and beasts
Both great and small are there.

9 The ships go there, and there Thou mak'st
Leviathan to play.
These wait on Thee, and from Thy hand
In due time fed are they.

10 And what Thy kindness gives to them
They gather for their food;
Thine hand Thou open'st lib'rally
And they are filled with good.

11 Thou hid'st Thy face; they troubled are;
Their breath Thou tak'st away;
They die, and to their kindred dust
Return again do they.

12 Thy Spirit then Thou sendest forth,
And they created are;
The face of earth Thou dost revive,
And all things new appear.

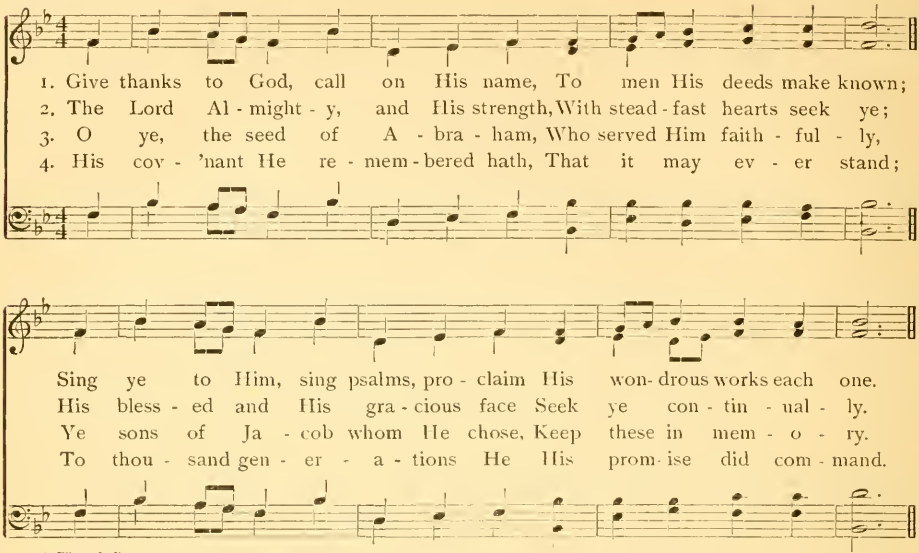
13 Earth, as affrighted, trembleth all,
If He on it but look,
And if the mountains He but touch,
They presently do smoke.

14 I to the Lord Most High will sing
So long as I shall live,
And while I being have I will
To my God praises give.

15 Of Him my meditation shall
Sweet thoughts to me afford,
And, as for me, I will rejoice
In God, my only Lord.

16 From earth let sinners be consumed,
Let ill men no more be.
O thou my soul, bless thou the Lord;
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM 105. C. M. GERMAN



("Ellacombe")

(Music continued on next page)

5 And unto Jacob, for a law,
He made it firm and sure,
A covenant to Israel,
Which ever should endure.
He said, "I Canaan's land will give
For heritage to you;"
While they were strangers there, and few,
In number very few;

6 While yet they went from land to land,
Without a sure abode,
And while through many kingdoms they
Did wander far abroad.
Yet, notwithstanding, suffered He
No man to do them wrong;
Yea, for their sakes He did reprove
Kings, who were great and strong.

7 He said, "These my anointed are,
Touch not, nor do them wrong,
Nor do the prophets any harm
That unto Me belong."
He called for famine on the land,
He broke the staff of bread;
But yet He sent a man before,
By whom they should be fed;

8 Ev'n Joseph, whom, by envy moved,
Sell for a slave did they;
Whose feet they with the fetters hurt,
And he in irons lay;
Until the time that His word came
To give him liberty;
The word and purpose of the Lord
Did him in prison try.

9 Then sent the king, and did command
That he enlarged should be;
He that the people's ruler was
Did send to set him free.
To be the lord of all his house
He raised him, as most fit;
To him of all that he possessed
He did the charge commit:

10 That at his pleasure he might bind
The princes of the land,
And also make his senators
True wisdom understand.
The people then of Israel
Down into Egypt came,
And Jacob for a time sojourned
Within the land of Ham.

11 And He did greatly by His pow'r
Increase His people there,
And stronger than their enemies
They by His blessing were.
Their heart He then to hatred turned Against His people there,
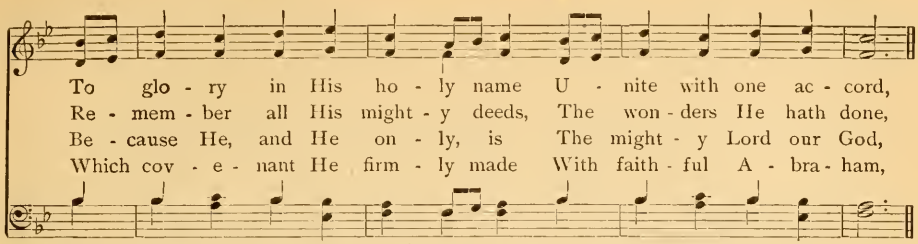
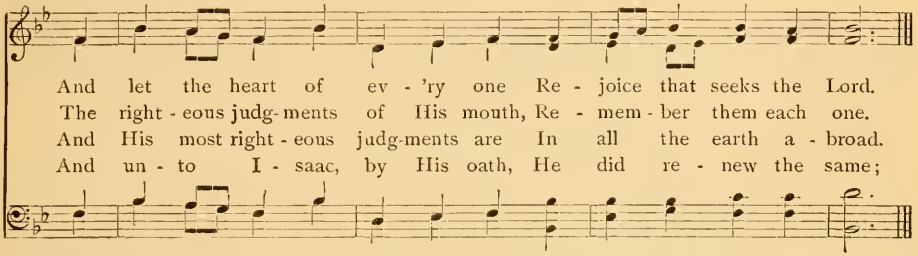
To deal in subtlety with those
Who His own servants were.

12 His servant Moses then He sent
And Aaron, chosen one,
And they His signs and wonders great
In land of Ham made known.
He darkness sent, and made it dark;
His word they did obey.
He turned their waters into blood,
And He their fish did slay.





13 The land in plenty brought forth frogs
In chambers of their kings;
His word all sorts of flies and lice
In all their borders brings.
Hail stones for rain, and flaming fire
Into their land He sent,
And He their vines and fig-trees smote,
Trees of their coasts He rent.

14 He spake, and caterpillars came
And locusts did abound,
Which in their land all herbs consumed,
And fruits of all their ground.
He smote all first-born in their land,
Chief of their strength each one;
With gold and silver brought them forth,
Weak in their tribes were none.

15 Egypt was glad when forth they went,
Their fear on them did light.
He spread a cloud for covering,
And fire to shine by night.
They asked, and quails He brought, with bread
Of heaven filled He them;
He opened rocks, floods gushed, and ran
In deserts like a stream.

16 For on His holy promise He,
And servant Abr'ham, thought;
With joy His people, His elect,
With gladness forth He brought.
And so the heathen's land to them
He for possession gave,
That of the people's labor they Inheritance might have;

17 That they His statutes might observe
According to His word,
And that they might His laws obey;
Give praises to the Lord.

God's Eternal Mercy

PSALM 106. C. M. 1-4

E. O. BUTTERFIELD

1. God's might-y works who can ex-press, Or show forth all His praise?
2. Re-mem-ber me, O Lord, with love Which Thou to Thine dost bear;
3. That I Thy cho-sen's good may see, And in their joy re-joice,

O blest are they that judg-ment keep, And just-ly do al-ways.
With Thy sal-va-tion, O my God, To vis-it me draw near;
And may with Thine in-her-it-ance Ex-ult with cheer-ful voice.

CHORUS

Praise ye . . . . . the Lord, . . .

Praise ye the Lord, and give Him thanks, For boun-ti-ful is He;

His mer - - cy shall en-dure . . . .

His ten-der mer-cy shall en-dure To all e-ter-ni-ty.

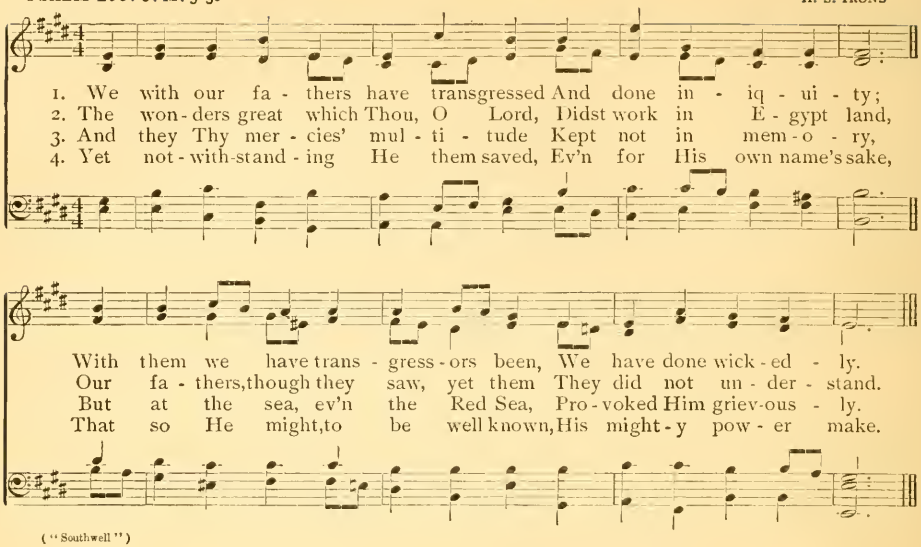
Sin And The Divine Patience

PSALM 106. C. M. 5-38

H. S. IRONS



("Southwell")

5 The Red Sea also He rebuked,
And then dried up it was;
Through depths, as through the wilderness,
He made them safely pass.

6 From hands of him that hated them
He did His people save,
And from the en'my's cruel hand
To them redemption gave.

7 The waters overwhelmed their foes;
Not one was left alive;
Then they believed His word, and praise
To Him in songs did give.

8 But soon they did His mighty works
Unthankfully forget,
And on His counsel and His will
Did not with patience wait.

9 But much did lust in wilderness,
And God in desert tempt;
He gave them what they sought, but to
Their soul He leanness sent.

10 Moreover Moses, in the camp,
They envied without cause;
At Aaron too, the saint of God,
Inflamed their envy was.

11 The earth did therefore open wide,
And Dathan did devour,
And all Abiram's company
It covered in that hour.

12 And likewise 'mong their company
A fire was kindled then,
And so the hot consuming flame
Burnt up these wicked men.

13 Yet they at Horeb made a calf,
A molten image praised,
Their glory changed to form of ox
That in the pastures grazed.

14 They soon forgot the mighty God,
Who had their Saviour been,
By Whom such great things brought to pass
They had in Egypt seen.

15 In land of Ham His wondrous works,
Things terrible, did He,
When He His mighty hand and arm
Stretched out at the Red Sea.

16 He said He would them all destroy,
Had not, His wrath to stay,
His chosen Moses stood in breach,
That them He should not slay.

17 Yea, they despised the pleasant land,
Nor did believe His word,
But, murmuring in their tents, refused
To hearken to the Lord.

18 In desert therefore them to slay
He lifted up His hand,
Through nations to o'erthrow their seed,
And scatter in each land.

19 They unto Baäl-peor did
Themselves associate;
The sacrifices of the dead
They did profanely eat.

20 Thus, by inventions of their own,
They much provoked His ire,
And then upon them suddenly
The plague broke in as fire.

21 Then Phin'has rose, and justice did,
And so the plague did cease;
That to all ages counted was
To him for righteousness.

22 And at the waters, where they strove,
They did Him angry make,
In such a way that ill it fared
With Moses for their sake:

23 Because they there his spirit meek
Provoked so bitterly,
That he with hasty lips did speak
Words unadvisedly.

24 Nor, as the Lord commanded them,
Did they the nations slay,
But with the heathen mingled were,
And learned of them their way.

25 Moreover they their idols served,
Which to a snare was turned;
To demons they in sacrifice
Their sons and daughters burned.

26 In their own children's guiltless blood
Their hands they did imbrue,
Whom unto Canaan's idols they
For sacrifices slew.

27 So was the land defiled with blood,
Stained with their works were they,
And with inventions of their own
To idols they did stray.

28 Against His people kindled was
The anger of the Lord;
They so provoked His wrath that He
His heritage abhorred.

29 He gave them to the heathen's power,
Their foes did them command;
Their en'mies them oppressed, they were
Made subject to their hand.

30 He many times delivered them,
But with their counsel so
They Him provoked, that for their sin
They were brought very low.

31 Yet their affliction He beheld,
When He did hear their cry,
And He for them His covenant
Recalled to memory.

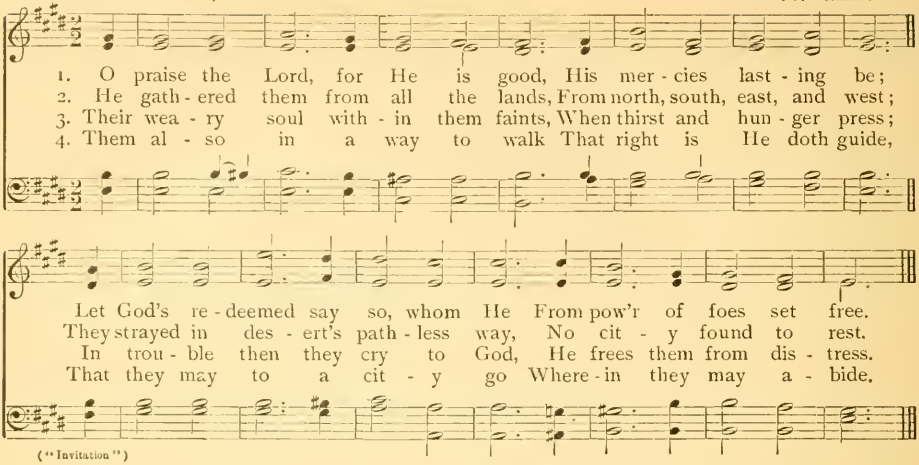
32 And in His mercies' multitude
He did repent, and make
Them to be pitied of all those
Who did them captive take.

33 Save us, O Lord our God, and us
From heathen nations bring,
That we Thy holy name may thank,
Thy praises ever sing.

34 Blessed be Jehovah, Isr'el's God,
To all eternity;
Let all the people say, Amen.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

220 Praise For Gracious Deliverances

PSALM 107. C. M. 1-14 W. V. WALLACE



("Invitation")

5 O that men to the Lord would give
Praise for His goodness then,
And for His works of wonder done
Unto the sons of men!

6 For He the soul that longing is
Doth fully satisfy;
With goodness He the hungry soul
Doth fill abundantly:

7 Such as shut up in darkness deep
And in death's shade abide,
Whom strongly hath affliction bound,
And irons fast have tied:

8 Because against the words of God
They wrought rebelliously,
And they the counsel did contemn
Of Him that is Most High.

9 Their heart with sorrow He brought down,
They fell, no help could have;
In trouble then they cried to God,
He them from straits did save.

10 He out of darkness did them bring,
And from death's shade them take;
The bands, wherewith they had been bound,
He did asunder break.

11 O that men to the Lord would give
Praise for His goodness then,
And for His works of wonder done
Unto the sons of men!

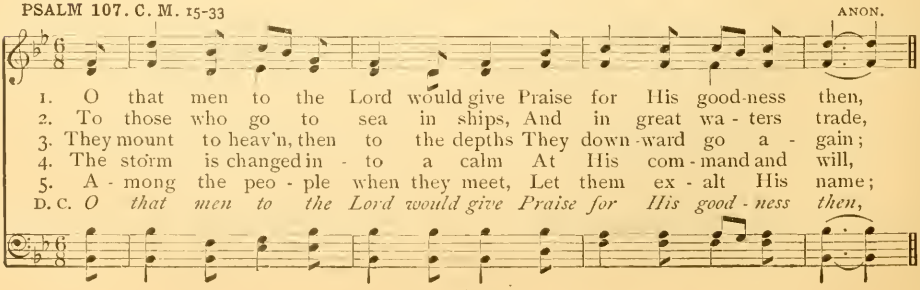
12 Because the mighty gates of brass
In pieces He did tear;
By Him in sunder also cut
The bars of iron were.

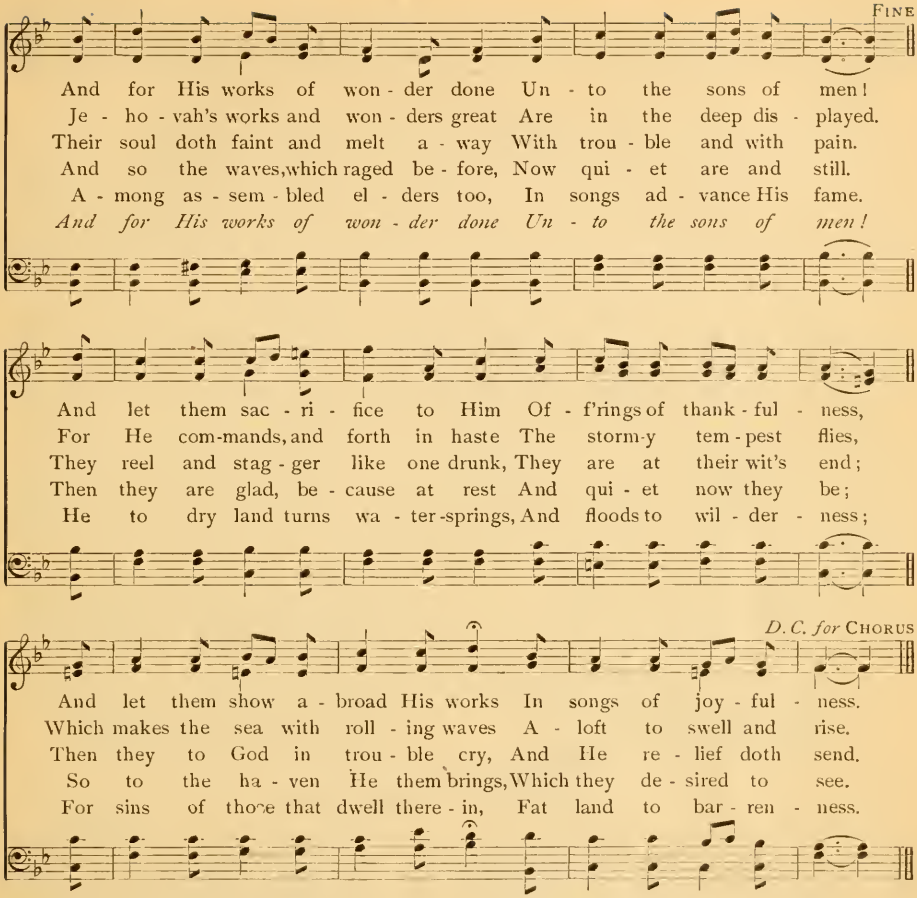
13 Fools, for their sin, and their offence,
Do sore affliction bear;
All kind of meat their soul abhors,
They to death's gates draw near.

14 In grief they cry to God; He saves
Them from their miseries;
He sends His word, them heals, and them
From their destruction frees.

221 Special Providences

PSALM 107. C. M. 15-33 ANON.





6 He into deserts dry and parched
The standing water brings,
And grounds which dry and barren were
He turns to water-springs.
And there, for dwelling, He a place
Doth to the hungry give,
That they a city may prepare,
Where they in peace may live.

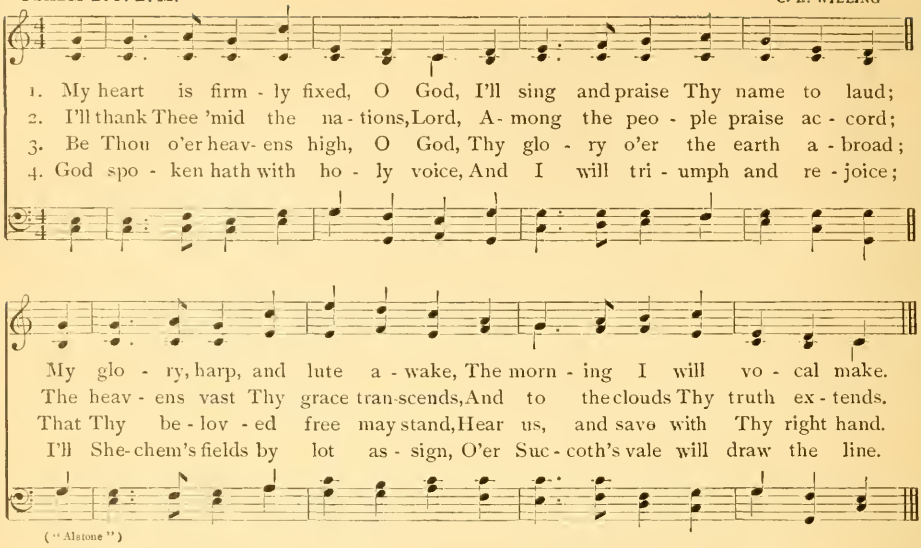
7 There sow they fields, and vineyards plant,
To yield fruits of increase;
His blessing makes them multiply,
Lets not their beasts decrease.
Again they much diminished are,
And brought to low estate,
Through sorrow and affliction sore,
And by oppression great.

8 He on the princes pours contempt,
He causes them to stray
And wander in a wilderness,
In which there is no way.
Yet setteth He the poor on high
From all his miseries,
And He, in number like a flock,
Doth make Him families.

9 They who are righteous shall rejoice
When they the same shall see,
And, as confounded, stop her mouth
Shall all iniquity.
Whoso is wise, and will these things
Observe, and them record,
Ev'n they shall understand the love
And kindness of the Lord.

222 The Thanksgiving Of Faith

PSALM 108. L. M. C. E. WILLING



5 Manasseh, Gilead too, are mine,
On Ephraim shall my head recline,
My ruler I shall Judah greet,
In Moab I shall wash my feet.

6 To Edom I will cast my shoe,
In triumph o'er Philistia go.
Who to the city fortified —
To Edom, who will be my guide?

7 O God, do Thou our leader be,
Though we are now cast off from Thee,
And when our hosts to battle go,
O God, do Thou Thy presence show.

8 From trouble help, and us relieve,
For vain the help that man can give;
In God will we great valor show,
And He our foes will overthrow.

Music on Opposite Page, No. 223

5 A widow let his wife be left,
His children of their sire bereft;
Let them be scattered far from home,
And begging bread through deserts roam.

6 Extortioners his substance take,
His toil a prey let strangers make;
Let him from none compassion know,
None to his orphans favor show.

7 His seed let perish in their shame,
The coming age blot out their name;
His father's sin Jehovah mind,
His mother's sin no pardon find.

8 Let them with God ne'er be forgot,
Till he from earth their mem'ry blot;
For he remembered not to show
Compassion to the sons of woe.

9 The poor and those with want distressed
He persecuted and oppressed;
He them pursued to make his prey,
And broken-hearted ones to slay.

10 The curse he loved on him shall rest,
He, blessing not, shall not be blest.
Himself with cursing he arrayed,
To him shall cursing be repaid.

11 In him like water it shall flow,
Like oil through all his bones shall go;
Like raiment it shall clothe him o'er,
A girdle binding evermore.

12 Foes and accusers, from the Lord,
Shall find in cursing their reward;
But God the Lord, for Thy name's sake,
For me in mercy undertake.

13 Because Thy grace is rich and free,
From all my foes deliver me;
I'm poor and needy, grant relief,
My heart within is pierced with grief.

14 Like locust tossed, like fleeting shade,
My days to pass away are made;
Through many fasts my strength declines,
My knees are weak, my body pines.

15 To foes a vile reproach I'm made,
On me they look and shake the head;
O Lord, my God, my helper be,
In Thy great mercy save Thou me.

16 That this to them, Lord, may be known,
Has by Thy mighty hand been done;
They curse, but let their curse be vain,
Thy blessing, Lord, let me obtain.

17 When they arise shamed let them be,
But make Thy servant glad in Thee;
Let foes be covered with disgrace,
And mantle o'er with shame their face.

18 My mouth shall greatly praise the Lord,
Yea, with the throng His praise record,
For on the poor's right hand shall He
Stand up, his soul from wrong to free.

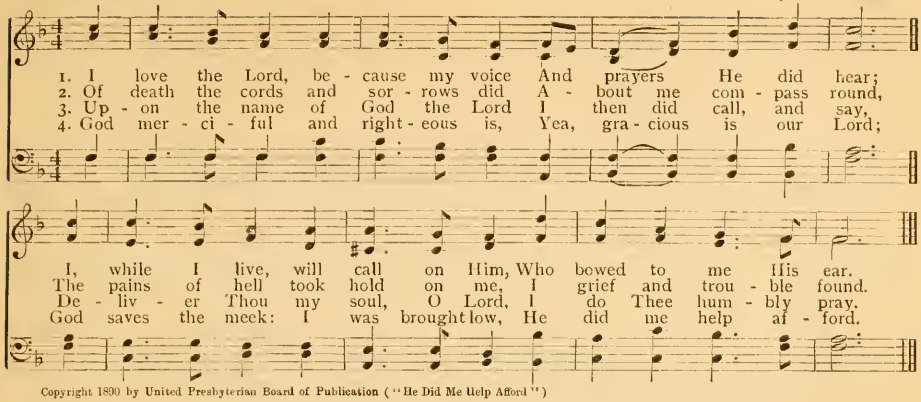
233 Grateful Love And Devotedness

PSALM 116. C. M. J. B. HERBERT



Copyright 1890 by United Presbyterian Board of Publication ("He Did Me Help Afford")

5 O thou my soul, do thou return
Unto thy quiet rest,
For largely unto thee the Lord
His bounty hath expressed.

6 For my afflicted soul from death
Delivered was by Thee;
Thou didst my mourning eyes from tears,
My feet from falling, free.

7 I in the land of those that live
Will walk the Lord before.
I did believe, and therefore spoke;
I was afflicted sore.

8 I said, when I was in my haste,
That all men liars be.
What shall I render to the Lord
For all His gifts to me?

9 I'll of salvation take the cup,
On God's name will I call,
I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
Before His people all.

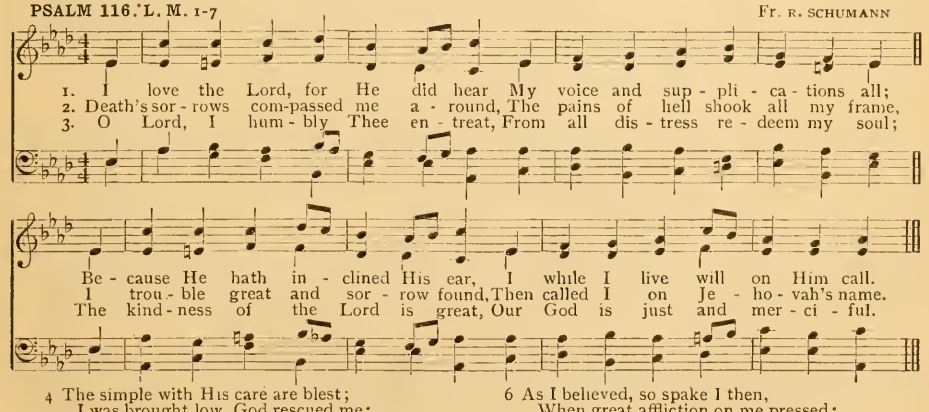
10 In God's sight dear is His saints' death;
Thy servant, Lord, am I,
Thy servant, and Thy handmaid's son;
My bonds Thou didst untie.

11 To Thee thank-off'rings I will give,
And on God's name will call;
I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
Before His people all;

12 Within the courts of God's own house,
Within the midst of thee,
O city of Jerusalem.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

234 Sacramental Musings

PSALM 116. L. M. 1-7 FR. R. SCHUMANN



4 The simple with His care are blest;
I was brought low, God rescued me;
My soul, return thou to thy rest,
Great love the Lord hath shown to thee.

5 For Thou from death hast saved me, Lord,
And Thou hast freed my eyes from tears,
My feet from falling hast secured;
With God I'll walk thro' all my years.

6 As I believed, so spake I then,
When great affliction on me pressed;
"How false, how faithless are all men!"
Were words I uttered in my haste.

7 What fit return, Lord, can I make
For all Thy gifts on me bestowed?
The cup of blessing I will take,
And call upon the name of God.

But, like the thorns that flame,
They have been quenched, and them shall I
Destroy in God's own name.

10 Thou sore hast thrust, that I might fall;
The Lord gave help to me;
Jehovah is my strength and song,
And my salvation free.

11 In dwellings of the just, the voice
Of joy and health shall be;
The right hand of the mighty Lord
Doth ever valiantly.

12 The right hand of the mighty Lord
Exalted is on high;
The right hand of the mighty Lord
Doth ever valiantly.

13 I shall not die, but live, and shall
The works of God declare;
The Lord hath sorely chastened me,
But yet my life did spare.

14 O set ye open unto me
The gates of righteousness;
Then will I enter into them,
And I the Lord will bless.

15 This is the gate of God, by it
The just shall enter in.
I will Thee praise, for Thou me heard'st
And hast my safety been.

16 That stone is made head corner-stone
Which builders did despise;
This is the doing of the Lord,
And wondrous in our eyes.

17 This is the day the Lord hath made,
In it we glad will be;
Save now, I pray Thee, Lord; I pray,
Send now prosperity.

18 O blest be He Who comes to save
In God's most holy name;
The blessing from the house of God
Upon you we proclaim.

19 The Lord is God; He unto us
Hath made the light arise;
O bind ye to the altar's horns,
With cords, the sacrifice.

20 Thou art my God, I will Thee praise,
My God, I'll Thee extol;
Praise God, for He is good; His grace
Endures through ages all.

239 Jehovah's Gracious Works And Ways

PSALM 118. L. M. 1-11 H. P. DANKS

6 The nations all around me came;
I'll them destroy in God's great name;
They gathered, and around me came;
I'll cut them off in God's great name.

7 Like bees they swarm in fiercest ire;
They shall be quenched like thorns on fire;
In God's great name I shall prevail,
And those destroy who me assail.

8 Thou hast thrust sore at me to slay,
But God has been my help and stay;
My strength and song is God the Lord,
To me He safety doth afford.

9 The voice of joy and saving grace
Is in the just man's dwelling-place;
The right hand of the Lord above
In mighty deeds doth valiant prove.

10 The Lord's right hand is lifted high,
The Lord's right hand doth valiantly;
I shall not die, but live, and praise
Jehovah's gracious works and ways.

11 Jehovah hath me chastened sore,
But unto death did not give o'er;
Unfold the gates of righteousness,
I'll enter in the Lord to bless.

I will exalt Thee, O my God.
The Lord is good, O praise His name;
His mercy ever is the same.

4 By what means shall a young man learn
His way to cleanse, O Lord?
By taking careful heed to it
According to Thy word.
Unfeignedly Thee have I sought
With all my soul and heart;
O never let me from the path
Of Thy commands depart.

5 Thy word I in my heart have hid,
That I offend not Thee;
O Lord, Thou ever blessed art,
Thy statutes teach Thou me.
The judgments of Thy mouth each one
My lips recounted have;
More joy Thy testimonies' way
Than riches all me gave.

6 I will Thy holy precepts make
My meditation still,
And have respect to all Thy ways
Continually I will.
Upon Thy statutes my delight
Shall constantly be set,
And by Thy grace I never will
Thy holy law forget.

4 My soul for Thy salvation faints,
Yet I Thy word believe.
Mine eyes fail for Thy word: I say,
When wilt Thou comfort give?
For like a bottle I'm become,
Which in the smoke is set;
But still Thy righteous statutes, Lord,
I never do forget.

5 How many are Thy servant's days?
When wilt Thou execute
Just judgment on these wicked men
That do me persecute?
The proud for me have pits prepared,
Which is against Thy laws.
Thy words all faithful are: help me,
Pursued without a cause.

6 They so consumed me that on earth
My life they scarce did leave;
Thy precepts yet forsook I not,
But close to them did cleave.
According to Thy mercy, Lord,
Me quicken and preserve;
The testimony of Thy mouth
So shall I still observe.

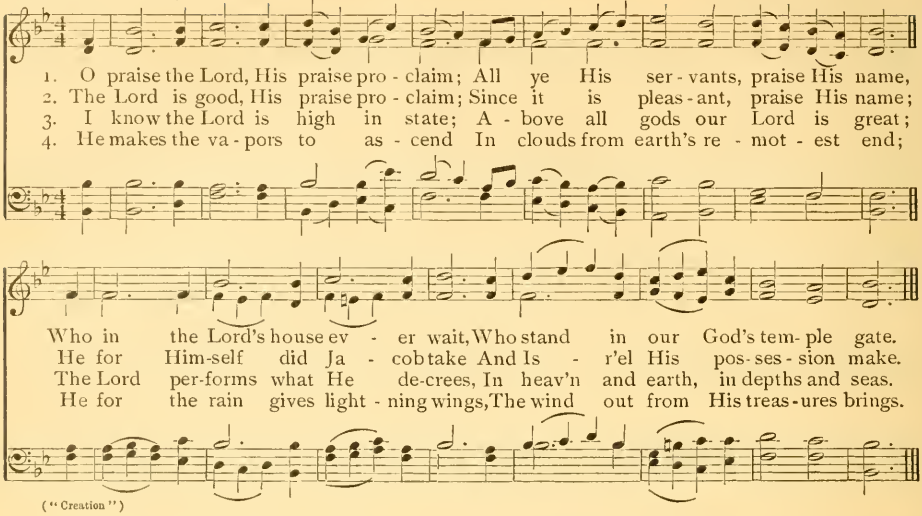
290 God Adored For His Excellency

PSALM 135. L. M. Arr. from F. J. HAYDN



("Creation")

5 He smote from greatest to the least
Of Egypt's first-born, man and beast,
In midst of thee, O Egypt land,
Sent signs and wonders from His hand.

6 He made His wonders dread to fall
On Pharaoh and his servants all;
He many nations overthrew,
And mighty kings and princes slew.

7 He Sihon slew, and Bashan's king,
On Canaan's thrones did ruin bring,
Their land for heritage bestowed
On Isr'el for their own abode.

8 O Lord, eternal is Thy name,
Thy memory lives in endless fame;
God will His people's cause maintain
And to His servants turn again.

9 The heathen idols all are nought
But silver, gold, by man's hand wrought;
With mouths, no power of speech they find,
With eyes to see, they yet are blind.

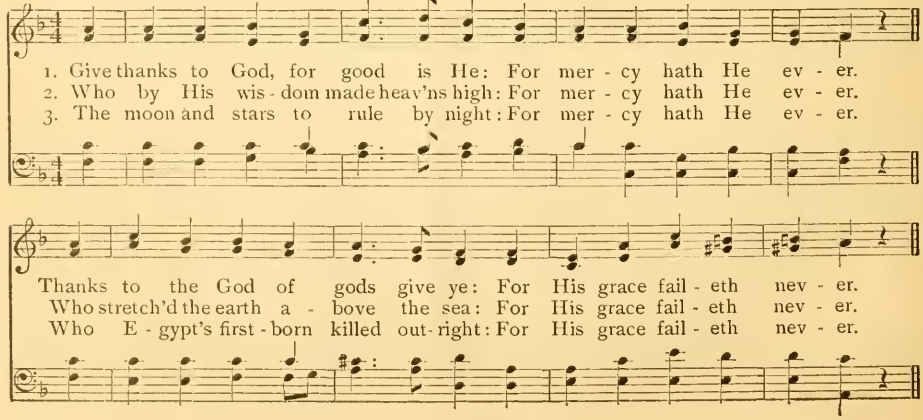
10 With ears, they hear no voice or sound,
And in their mouth no breath is found;
Their makers all their likeness bear,
Who trust in them their fate shall share.

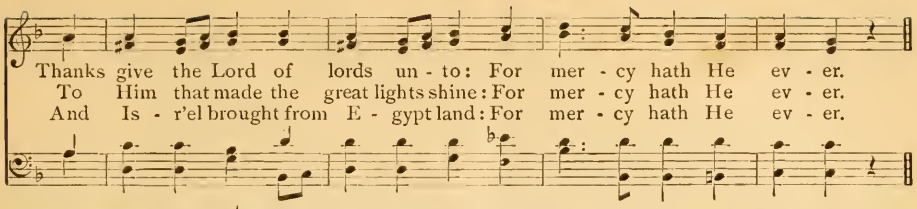
11 O house of Isr'el, bless the Lord;
Let Aaron's house Him praise accord;
Him blest, let Levi's house proclaim;
Bless ye the Lord, who fear His name.

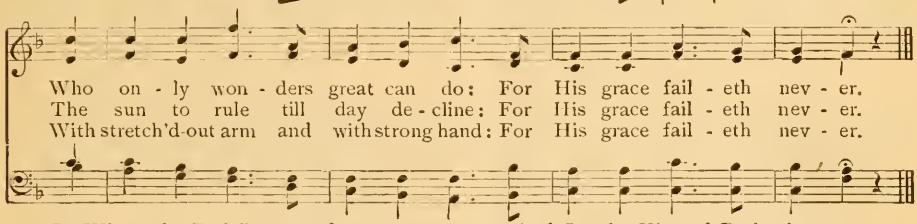
12 Forever let the Lord be blest,
From Zion let it be expressed;
Jerus'lem is His dwelling-place;
Praise ye the Lord, make known His grace.

291 The Praise Of God's Eternal Mercy

PSALM 136. 8s & 7s A. S. SULLIVAN







4 By Whom the Red Sea parted was:
For mercy hath He ever.
He through its midst made Isr'el pass:
For His grace faileth never.
He Pharaoh and his host did drown:
For mercy hath He ever.
And through the desert led His own:
For His grace faileth never.

5 To Him great kings Who overthrew:
For mercy hath He ever.
Yea, famous kings in battle slew:
For His grace faileth never.
Ev'n Sihon, king of Amorites:
For mercy hath He ever.
And Og, the King of Bashanites:
For His grace faileth never.

6 Their land in heritage to have:
For mercy hath He ever.
His servant Isr'el right He gave:
For His grace faileth never.
In our low state Who on us thought:
For mercy hath He ever.
And from our foes our freedom wrought:
For His grace faileth never.

7 Who doth all flesh with food relieve:
For mercy hath He ever.
Thanks to the God of heaven give:
For His grace faileth never.

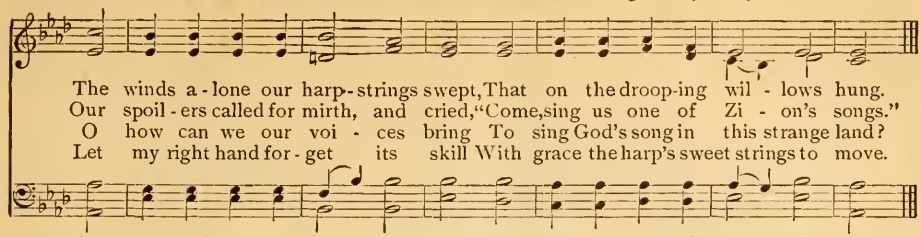
294 Fond Remembrance Of Church Privileges

PSALM 137. L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY

1. By Ba-bel's streams we sat and wept, For mem-ory still to Zi - on clung;
2. For there our cap-tors, flushed with pride, A song re-quired to mock our wrongs;
3. O how can we the Lord's song sing While thus an ex - ile cap - tive band?
4. Je - ru - sa - lem, God's ho - ly hill, If I of thee for - get - ful prove,

("Olive's Brow")



5 If I do not remember thee,
Let my parched tongue its utterance cease;
If my chief joy be dear to me
Beyond Jerus'lem's joy and peace.

6 Remember, Lord, how Edom's crowd,
Glad in Jerus'lem's day of woe,
Urged on the victor, shouting loud,
"Down with her walls, o'erthrow, o'erthrow."

7 O Babel's daughter, God's decree
Dooms thee to wrath, a wretched prey,
And blest shall that avenger be
Who shall to thee our wrongs repay.

8 Yea, truly shall that man be blest,
And with triumphal honor crowned,
Who rends thy children from the breast,
To dash them bleeding to the ground.

297 God's Omniscience And Omnipresence

PSALM 139. L. M. J. B. HERBERT

1. Lord, Thou hast searched me, and hast known My ris - ing up and ly - ing down,
2. Thou know'st my path and ly - ing down, And all my ways to Thee are known;
3. Be - hind, be - fore me, Thou dost stand, And lay on me Thy might - y hand;

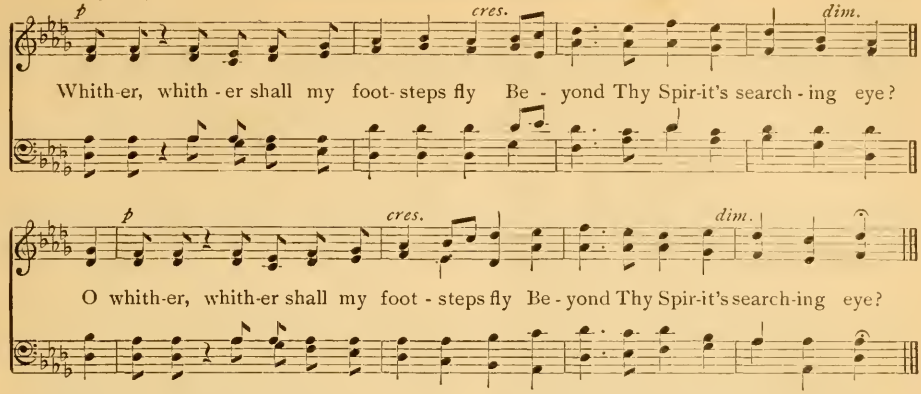
CHORUS



4 O whither shall my footsteps fly
Beyond Thy Spirit's searching eye?
To what retreat shall I repair,
And find not Thy dread presence there?

5 If I to heaven shall ascend,
Thy presence there will me attend;
If in the grave I make my bed,
Lo, there I find Thy presence dread.

6 If on the morning wings I flee,
And dwell in utmost parts of sea,
Even there Thy hand shall guide my way,
And Thy right hand shall be my stay.

7 Or if I say, To shun Thine eye
In shades of darkness I will lie,
Around me then the very night
Will shine as shines the noon-day light.

8 From Thee the shades can nought disguise,
The night is day before Thine eyes;
The darkness is to Thee as bright
As are the beams of noon-day light.

9 My very reins belong to Thee;
Thou in the womb didst cover me;
And I to Thee will praise proclaim,
For fearful, wondrous, is my frame.

10 Thy works are wonderful, I know,
And when in depths of earth below
This complicated frame was made,
'Twas all before Thine eyes displayed.

11 My substance, yet unformed by Thee,
Thy searching eyes did clearly see;
My days were written every one
Within Thy books, ere yet begun.

12 Thy thoughts, O God, to me are dear;
How vast their numbers do appear!
More than the sand my reckonings make,
I'm still with Thee when I awake.

13 Thou wilt the wicked slay, O God;
Depart from me, ye men of blood,
Who speak of Thee for ends profane,
Thy foes who take Thy name in vain.

14 Do not I hate Thy haters, Lord,
And Thy assailants hold abhorred?
A perfect hatred them I show,
And count each one to me a foe.

15 Search me, O God, my heart discern,
Try me, my very heart to learn;
See if in evil paths I stray,
And guide me in th' eternal way.

BEETHOVEN
Arr. by GEORGE G. PHIPPS

Gently

1. Je - ho - vah, from the e - vil man Do Thou de - liv - er me,
2. They in their heart im - ag - ine wrong, And e - vil med - i - tate,
3. For like a ser - pent's pier - cing tongue Their tongues they sharp do make,
4. Lord, keep me from the wick - ed's hands, From vi - 'lent men me save,

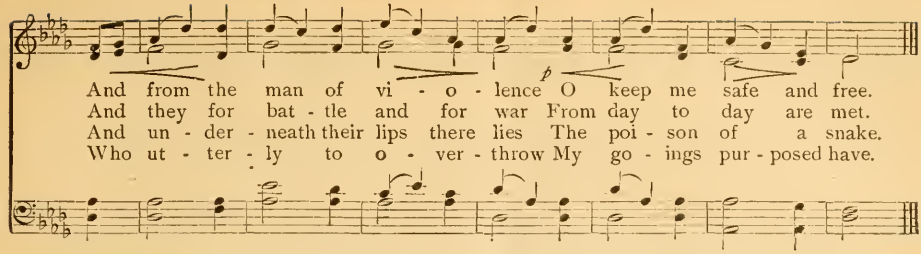
Faith's Attitude In Trouble (Con.)



5 The proud a snare and cords have laid,
And they a secret net
Have by the way-side for me spread;
They traps for me have set.

6 I to Jehovah said, Thou art
My God; then to the cry
Of all my supplications, Lord,
Do Thou Thine ear apply.

7 O God the Lord, Who art the strength
Of my salvation great,
A covering in the day of war
Thou on my head hast set.

8 Unto the wicked man, O Lord,
His wishes do not grant;
Nor further Thou his ill device,
Lest they themselves should vaunt.

9 As for the head and chief of those
About that compass me,
Ev'n by the mischief of their lips
Let Thou them covered be.

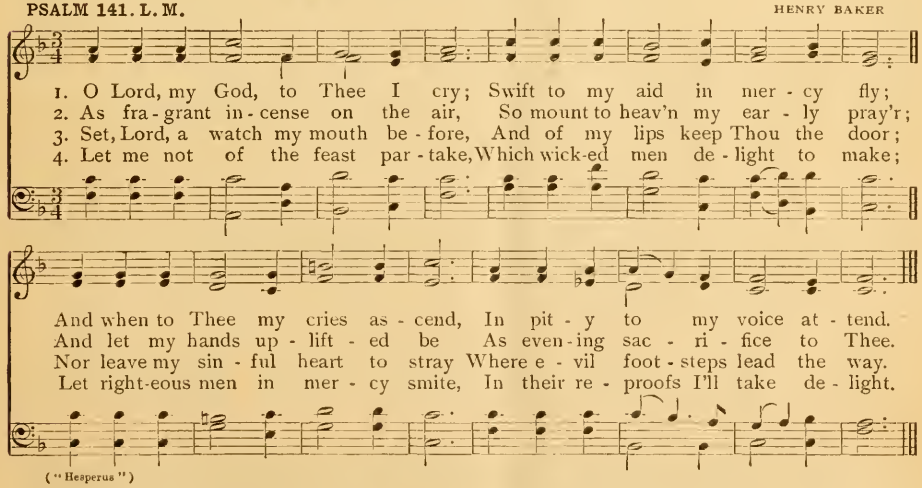
10 Let burning coals upon them fall,
Them throw in fiery flame
And in deep pits, that they no more
May rise up from the same.

11 Let not a man of evil tongue
On earth established be;
Let mischief hunt the violent
Till ruined utterly.

12 I know God will th' afflicted save,
The poor defend will He;
The just shall surely praise Thy name,
The upright dwell with Thee.

300 A Prayer For Restraining Grace

PSALM 141. L. M. HENRY BAKER



("Hesperus")

5 Let righteous lips my errors chide,
Like healing oil the accents glide;
If voice of faithful friend reprove,
Such smiting comes to me in love.

6 For them, when they are in distress,
To God I will my prayer address;
Their judges cast on rocky ground,
Then sweet to them my words shall sound.

7 Around the grave our bones are left,
As branches by the woodman cleft;
To Thee, Lord God, I lift my eyes,
On Thee my helpless soul relies.

8 Preserve me from the secret net,
The toils which impious hands have set;
In their own snares let sinners fall,
While I by grace escape them all.

PSALM 142. L. M. GEO. C. STEBBINS

1. To God my ear - nest voice I raise, To God my voice im - plor - ing prays;
2. When griefs my faint - ing soul o'er - flow, Thou know - est, Lord, the way I go,
3. All un - pro - tect - ed, lo, I stand, No friend - ly guard-ian at my hand,
4. O Lord, my Sav - iour, now to Thee, With-out a hope be - sides, I flee —

Be - fore His face I pour my tears, And tell my sor - row in His ears.
And all the toils that foes do lay To snare Thy ser - vant in his way.
No place of flight or ref - uge near, And none to whom my soul is dear.
To Thee, my shel - ter from the strife, My por - tion in the land of life.

CHORUS

O Lord, my Sav - iour, now to Thee, With - out a hope be - sides, I flee —

To Thee, my shel - ter from the strife, My por - tion in the land of life.

5 Then hear and heed my fervent cry,
For low with burning griefs I lie;
Against my foes Thy arm display,
For I am weak, but strong are they.

6 Redeem me from the captive chains,
That I may sing in grateful strains;
Then shall the righteous round me press,
For God shall me with favor bless.

5 Because I trust in Thee,
O Lord, cause me to hear
Thy loving-kindness free,
When morning doth appear.
Cause me to know the way
In which my path should be,
Because to Thee I pray,
And lift my soul to Thee.

6 O Lord, deliver me
From all who me oppose;
To Thee alone I flee
To hide me from my foes.
O Lord, for Thy name's sake,
Revive and quicken me,
And for Thine own truth's sake
My soul from trouble free.

4 O Lord, send quick relief,
I humbly pray to Thee;
My spirit fails through grief,
Thy face hide not from me.
Unless Thou interpose,
And help to me extend,
I shall be like to those
Who to the grave descend.

5 Because I trust in Thee,
O Lord, cause me to hear
Thy loving-kindness free,
When morning doth appear.
Cause me to know the way
In which my path should be,
Because to Thee I pray,
And lift my soul to Thee.

6 O Lord, deliver me
From all who me oppose;
To Thee alone I flee
To hide me from my foes.
Thou art my God in need,
Teach me Thy just command;
Thy Spirit's good; me lead
Into the perfect land.

7 O Lord, for Thy name's sake,
Revive and quicken me,
And for Thine own truth's sake
My soul from trouble free.
In mercy cut off all
My foes, and put to shame
All who afflict my soul,
For I Thy servant am.

5 Me free from hands of children strange,
Whose mouth speaks vanity,
And their right hand a right hand is
That works deceitfully.
That as the plants our sons may be,
In youth grown up that are;
Our daughters like to corner-stones,
Carved like a palace fair.

6 That to afford all kind of store
Our garners may be filled;
That our sheep thousands, in our streets
Ten thousands they may yield.
That strong our oxen be for work,
That no in-breaking be,
Nor going out; and that our streets
May from complaints be free.

7 O blest the people who are found
In such a state as this;
Yea, greatly blest those people are,
Whose God Jehovah is.

5 Thy kingdom shall forever stand,
Thy reign through ages all;
God raiseth all that are bowed down,
Upholdeth all that fall.

6 The eyes of all things wait on Thee,
Thou giver of all good,
And Thou in season due dost give
To every one his food.

7 Thy hand is opened liberally;
It of Thy bounty gives
Enough to satisfy the want
Of every thing that lives.

4 To all the Lord is very good,
O'er all His works His mercy is;
Thy works all praise to Thee afford,
Thy saints, O Lord, Thy name shall bless.
Thy kingdom's glory they shall show,
They also shall Thy power tell,
That so men's sons His deeds may know,
His kingdom's grace that doth excel.

5 Thy kingdom hath no end at all,
It shall to ages all remain.
The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
The cast-down raiseth up again.
The eyes of all upon Thee wait;
In season Thou their food dost give;
Thy opened hand, with bounty great,
Supplies the wants of all that live.

Creation's Tribute To Its Creator

PSALM 148. 8s & 7s

D. B. TOWNER

1. Hal - le - lu - jah, praise Je - ho - vah, From the heav - ens praise His name; Praise Je - ho - vah in the high - est, All His an - gels praise pro - claim. All His hosts, to - geth - er praise Him, Sun, and moon, and stars on high; Praise Him, O ye heav'ns of heav-ens, And ye floods a - bove the sky.
2. Let them prais - es give Je - ho - vah, They were made at His com - mand; Them for - ev - er He es - tab - lished, His de - cree shall ev - er stand. From the earth, O praise Je - ho - vah, All ye floods, ye drag - ons all, Fire, and hail, and snow, and va - pors, Storm - y winds that hear His call.
3. All ye fruit - ful trees and ce - dars, All ye hills and moun - tains high, Creep - ing things, and beasts and cat - tle, Birds that in the heav - ens fly, Kings of earth, and all ye peo - ple, Prin - ces great, earth's judg - es all; Praise His name, young men and maid-ens, A - ged men, and chil-dren small.
4. Let them prais - es give Je - ho - vah, For His name a - lone is high, And His glo - ry is ex - alt - ed Far a - bove the earth and sky. He His peo - ple's pow'r ex - alt - eth; All His saints to praise ac - cord, Ja - cob's seed, a peo - ple near Him; Hal - le - lu - jah, praise the Lord.

CHORUS

Let them prais - es give Je - ho - vah, For His name a - lone is high, And His glo - ry is ex - alt - ed Far a - bove the earth and sky.
